Situation Deteriorating . . .

The state of order in downtown Prince Rupert by night is beginning to deteriorate again. The fact was taken cognizance of by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce at a recent meeting which passed a resolution on the matter.

We well remember what the situation in this re-time again. gard was in Prince Rupert about a year and a half it was 36 to 20 going into the ago. We also remember the means that were taken to rectify it. We do not wish to appear as kill-joys but, if the granting of certain privileges and the relaxation of restrictions means we are to return to the old conditions of law and order, then we must advocate a restoration of the restrictions which were proven to have been so effective. There is no intention of spoiling anybody's good time providing the good time does not take the form of hoodlumism and disorder which becomes obviously objectionable. If some people, be they civilians or soldiers, are not able to take care of themselves without becoming objectionable when they are granted some privileges, they are the ones really to blame and, on account of them, the privileges of all may be removed.

We do not want Prince Rupert to slip back into the old way and, judging from the way things have been going lately, it is about time now to do something about it again. The authorities concerned are, doubtless, keeping the situation under close check.

The Argentinean mayor knew that was a misnomer but it took some time to find a suitable translation. Now wrestling exhibitions must be advertised as "parodias de luchas," literally parodies on wrestling.
