▲ Ladies:— Reminding you of Red Cross Tea, Thursday, October 21, at Mrs. L. W. Kergin's 430 4th Ave. West. Remember Home Cooking Table. Red Cross is the helping hand to humanity. Come with a friend. Make this tea a success and enjoy friendship in a cup. (245)

A showing of graphic war pictures in support of the Fifth Victory Loan campaign was the feature at today's regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club. Maurice Brydges was in charge of the arrangement of the day's program. President W. J. Scott was in the chair.

Tenders for transportation of city telephone operators to and from work during the night hours were considered at a recent meeting of the utilities committee of the city council, the decisiono being to leave the existing arrangement unchanged.

The United States Engineering Department is negotiating with the city council for the lease of lots 3 to 9, block 39, section 1 and lots 41 to 43, block 29, section 1. The former would be used for construction purposes. The latter is occupied by the Royal Motors. Some exception was taken by members of the city council Monday night ot the inclination of the Americans to withhold payment until use of the properties actually started, tying them up meantime. The matter was referred to the finance committee.

The city's rights in the Woodworth Lake watershed, which is the source of municipal water supply, in relation to the Northern British Columbia Power Co., which takes water from there for the Shawatlans Lake power plant, is under discussion by the city council and came before the council in committee of the whole Monday night. The city engineer is being instructed as to the city's rights and the company's responsibilities in regard to dam maintenance, availability of water and other matters.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cruickshank, who have been on a vacation trip to Vancouver, Regina and Winnipeg, returned to the city this afternoon.

The Northern British Columbia Power Co. is being requested by the city to have all electric light poles plainly numbered for the convenience of the public in reporting street lights out.

▲Attention Women of the Moose: Important meeting tonight at Oddfellows' Hall at 7:30. Initiation followed by joint social with the Loyal Order of the Moose at 9 p.m. All visiting Moose Members welcome. (1t)
