EAST FRONT DRAINS MEN FROM WEST

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 1 (CP)—Armed over the overwhelming menace of the conquering Red armies, the Germans are rushing troop reinforcements to the Russian front from Italy, and Norway, and intensifying work on new fortifications in the defence line of Poland...

MINE STRIKE BEGUN TODAY

CALGARY, Nov. 1 (CP)—Eight thousand five hundred coal miners in Alberta and British Columbia went on strike today, complying with orders from the district headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America in protest against 'dilly-dallying' of the National War Labor Board in considering requested wage increases.

'laissez-faire,' trusting that everything would come out all right, after this war as there had been after the last. Nothing would be achieved by guesswork or sitting back. Today there was a greater searching by the people than there had ever had before.

Issuing Liquor Coupons

Issuance of liquor ration coupons for November and December to permit holders was commenced at the week-end by the government liquor vendor.

In order to obtain coupons, an applicant must present his permit and registration card to the issuing clerk, who fills out the name, address, and number of the permit on the upper division of a form which is perforated into three sections.

The coupon system is found satisfactory during the next two months it will be used next year, it was said. The liquor allowance for November is three dozen pints of beer, or one 26 ounce quart of hard liquor, or one gallon of domestic wine, or two quarts of imported wine.

Wins $1,000 Victory Bond

A bit of speculation on the part of Mrs. E. Anderson, an employee of the Prince Rupert dry dock, resulted in her accumulating a Victory Bond worth $1000 at the week-end.

Bulletins

CONVOY AT GIBRALTAR The Vichy radio says that an Allied convoy of 350 ships has arrived at Gibraltar from the Atlantic. There is no confirmation in Allied quarters.

BATTLE OF ITALY While both the Fifth and Eighth Armies continue their advance by land, gaining as much as three miles at the week-end, the Italian west coast has been bombarded again by Allied naval units, there being no resistance. Genoa has been subjected to another air bombing.

REDS SQUEEZING NAZIS Three Russian armies are converging on the key Nazi stronghold of Nikopol on the lower Dnieper River in a drive to complete the entrapment of Germans in the Dnieper Bend. Simultaneously two other Russian forces are surging west and south of Melitopol to seal off German positions in the Crimea.

Aged Resident Passes Away

The death occurred yesterday of James Stewart Nicolson, 85, a resident of Prince Rupert for the past two years. Born in Scotland, where his wife still resides, Mr. Nicolson followed the trade of iron moulder until his retirement some time ago.

Hallowe'en Is Quietest Ever

With uncertainty as to whether it should be observed on Saturday or Sunday night, Hallowe'en turned out to be celebrated practically not at all in Prince Rupert this year. There was a minimum of the customary pranks and activity.

Hunt Escaped War Prisoners

WINNIPEG, Nov. 1 (CP)—Nineteen German war prisoners who escaped from a Manitoba camp were sought today by scores of guards, police, and farmer searchers. The men escaped from Riding Mountain National Park camp, 240 miles northwest of Winnipeg, during a blizzard, a police broadcast said today.

DIMOUT LIFTED

Military Situation Now Justifies It, Declares Major General Pearkes.

VICTORIA, Nov. 1 (CP)—A message from Major General G. R. Pearkes, general officer commanding-in-chief, Pacific Command, to Premier John Hart authorizing the lifting of the dimout on the Pacific Coast had the following to say:

'The matter of a dimout has been discussed with heads of other Pacific Command services and it is considered that the military is such that it now permits the suspension of dimout regulations as at November 1 in conformity with similar action by United States authorities on the Pacific Coast.

Mayor W. M. Watts received a wire last night from Inspector S. F. W. Moodie, provincial police officer in charge of civilian defence, intimating that Premier John Hart had announced suspension of dimout regulations as from midnight last night. Lifting of the dimout means that there may be normal street lighting again, store windows may be lighted again at night and porch lights can be used. There is some uncertainty as to what will be permissible in the way of neon signs and such commercial lighting.

WILL TAKE NECESSARY STEPS TO ENSURE THAT TERMS IMPOSED ON ENEMY ARE ADHERED TO — CONSULTATION ON ARMAMENTS—WAR CRIMINALS TO BE PUNISHED BY VICTIMS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1 (CP)—Great Britain, the United States, Russia and China have pledged themselves to united action in the peace to follow the defeat of their enemies and to the establishment of 'a general international organization' for the maintaining of peace and security.

The declaration provides that all will take necessary measures to provide against violations of terms imposed on the enemy, after the war they will not use military force in other states except after joint consultation and will confer with each other on the regulation of post-war armaments.

Closest military co-operation will be taken on decisions already made. A European advisory commission will be set up in London to study questions arising as war developments and make joint recommendations to the three governments.

Formal conclusion of the eleven-day old tripartite conference at Moscow is in sight as diplomatic experts put finishing touches on the draft of war and post-war agreements reached by representatives of Great Britain, Russia and the United States. Premier Joseph Stalin entertained Cordell Hull and Anthony Eden to a lavish dinner last night. An official statement of the results of the conference was expected early this week and came today.

German radio broadcasts reports from Stockholm claim that British and American delegates have made a detailed proposition to Russia regarding a second front with a fixed date.

TWO ARMIES SMASHING ON

Further Important Points Captured by Fifth and Eighth in Italy

ALGIERS, Nov. 1 (CP)—The Anglo-American Fifth Army captured Teano, control point to important roads flanking the Germans' Massico Ridge anchor, Allied headquarters announced today. The British Eighth Army smashed through the mountains to capture Cantalupo, Macchiagodena and Proselogno. This places the Eighth Army within nine miles of Isernia, central bastion of the German mountain line. Between these two sectors, the Americans advanced five miles up steep mountain slopes to seize Valleagricola.
