Miss Woodward Is Shower Honoree

Delightful Affair by Staff of Fraser and Payne for Bride-elect.

On Thursday evening a delightful shower was held by the staff of Fraser and Payne at the home of Miss Netta McLeod, in honor of Miss Joan Woodward, a valued member of the staff, who will be leaving shortly for the south where her marriage to Lieut. Frank Hicks of Edmonton will take place.

The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games after which delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. J. D. Fraser and Mrs. N. McLeod presided over the daintily decorated table.

Miss Betty Payne, with a neat little speech, presented the bride-elect with a beautiful cut glass bowl with silver deposit.

Those present to extend best wishes to the bride-elect were Mrs. W. L. Sandison, Mrs. C. Hitchens, Miss Dorothy Stiles, Mrs. G. Robinson, Mrs. McLeod, the Misses Annie and Netta McLeod, Ina Robertson, Mrs. C. Gilker, Mrs. G. Danielles, Mrs. Garbutt, Mrs. Payne, Miss Betty Payne, Mrs. Phillipson, Miss Harriet Phillipson, Mrs. J. D. Fraser, Mrs. F. Barber and Cpl. Betty Barber.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

This really puts Prince Rupert on the map, what map I'm not sure though. Today I received a letter from, yes, you guessed it, Toronto, addressed: "Director of Dramatics, Y.W.C.A. 1324 First Avenue West, Prince Rupert, Sask."

Yesterday afternoon a box was left on our front doorstep filled, simply brimming over, with yellow kittens. Well, anyway, there were three of them all exactly alike except that one poor little chap had his back legs paralyzed and had to be destroyed. Pinned to the box in the approved founding fashion was "For Mrs. Garbutt, Y.W.C.A.-Y.M.C.A." But I would not advise anyone else doing this even for a joke because any further kittens will be destroyed. However the two little fellows we are keeping are dear little things and responding to their warm milk, which they will sit in while drinking and God liver oil. They are enclosed in the Ladies' Powder Room and are quite frisky. We are trying to think of names for them. "Toot" and "Sweet" or "Tawny" and "Toughy" twin names are what we needed, although which would be "Tawny" and which "Toughy" we don't know as yet. Any suggestions for names. We found them the anniversary of the day Italy invaded Greece three years ago. Does that set any train of thought working?

Sometimes here at the Y we simply scintillate, sparks from our brains fly out in all directions as joke meets joke. Today it was anagrams—and because it was my own Chester is mean enough to say he saw it before. I wonder if I did see it somewhere before too and have forgotten. Here it is—by rearranging

"A. Hitler
"You get
"The Liar."
Funny isn't it and almost too true to be good!

TWO FILMS FEATURED

"Tarzan Triumphs" and "Saludos Amigos" Showing at Capitol Theatre Monday and Tuesday

"Tarzan Triumphs," another of the Johnny Weissmuller series of the famous jungle character, and a feature length animated cartoon feature by Walt Disney entitled "Saludos Amigos" comprise a double bill picture program coming to the Capitol Theatre on Monday and Tuesday next.

"Tarzan Triumphs" combines the thrills of modern warfare with the hazardous existence of the jungle. German parachutists invade Tarzan's peaceful home in the wilds and he makes war, bringing a roving story of many climaxes. Weissmuller is provided with a new leading lady in the person of beautiful Frances Gifford. Johnny Sheffield is again Tarzan junior and the famous chimpanzee, Cheta, has his part again. Villains are Stanley Ridges, Rex Williams and Sig Rumann as Nazi soldiers.

Walt Disney turns to fresh fields in presenting his characters and story of "Saludos Amigos," technicolor cartoon with a South-American background. Donald Duck is the hero of the piece. This happy entertainment is replete with melodies, beauties, charm and humor.
