Generous for Russia . . .

Prince Rupert people, always generous in good causes, have reached the initial objective again in one of these. This time it is the Canadian aid to Russia Fund. The quota of $3,500 was surpassed at the end of the week and still the subscriptions are coming in fast. The confident hope of the local committee now is that $5,000 will be reached.

Because the objective is reached does not mean that across from the Prinse Rupert C Fraser every dollar that can be possibly raised will not be put Hotel. to good use in relieving the sufferings of our brave allies. The Grenadiers put on a concert Handicap

Those who have not yet made subscriptions should not hesitate now because the first local quota has been attained.

It might be well to again remind intending subscribers that there is no regular canvassing campaign and the sure way to get the money in is to take or send it to one of the authorized collecting agencies which include the Up" paper we used to run. He Dominato banks and the newspapers.

This Year's Offensive . . .

A co-ordinated triangular offensive, that will stagger the imagination, in the east from Russia, in the south from Africa, in the west against Norway and the French coast, dian Scottish near Victoria on Violet Lee will be launched next spring against Germany, according september 18. He was riding a Kam Lee to Max Werner, outstanding military analyst, writing in motor cycle and collided with an the forthcoming issue of the new magazine, "Predictions R.C.A.F. truck full of airmen. By of Things to Come."

"By the spring," writes Mr. Werner, "the Allies will LAC. Donald Bradshaw." be able to count on considerable arms superiority, brought. about chiefly by the upswing in American arms production. The German Wehrmacht is no longer able to replace its arms losses. The German army has had much fewer offensive weapons, tanks and planes on the Russian front in 1942 than it had in 1941. The German troops are perpetually exhausted, by over-exertion and losses as well as by psychological depression. The new American weapons and the fresh American forces will thus have 26-Nursing Sisters vs. Knox Hotel all the more weight. They will confront an enemy whose war machine is worn out, and whose soldiers are weary and have lost the belief in victory."

Three new factors will have determined to a large extent the military situation next spring, declares Mr. Werner: the strategic positions held by the Anglo-American forces in North Africa, the Italian crisis and the present winter campaign in Russia.

Mr. Pattullo at Seventy . . .

The Vancouver Province, which has not always been so considerate of him, speaks kindly on the occasion of T. D. Pattullo reaching his seventieth birthday. It says:

"T. D. Pattullo, for many years premier of this province, and now, he says himself, the only real Liberal in the Legislature, has been celebrating his seventieth birthday.

"It is not easy to believe that Duff Pattullo is 70. It seems only yesterday that he came out of the North, natty and confident and full of ideas to help Honest John Oliver run his government.

"He was a young man then. He is a young man still, in spite of the bludgeonings of the years, which have made his hair white but do not appear to have affected him much in other ways.

"Mr. Pattullo has had an active and interesting and successful life, and though that fickle jade, Politics, has turned her back upon him, he still has a host of friends in British Columbia. These will all hope that he will have 16-70 more birthdays as happy as the 70 he has already counted."

Town Response Slow . . .

The newly formed Prince Rupert Machine Gun Regiment, local reserve unit, is divided into three companies-one to large extent consisting of dry dock workers, another men on local war contracting work and the third 30including men of the town generally.

Oddly enough, the town company is so far the smallest in numerical strength, although its nucleus is already making a fine showing.

Since the reserve is primarily formed for the defence of Prince Rupert itself, it would have been expected that the men of the town would have been the strongest in joining up.

Savoury Shepherd's Pie

A delicious combination of vegetable water (about 34 cupful). meat and vegetables which is economical, easy to make and nutritionally okay

At this time, when our government is stressing the importance of an adequate, balanced diet both in fighting the war and winning the peace, we are also told we must live more simply . . . save money.

Well, the two things really go well together. Take, as example, this week's special "Savoury Shepherd's Pie" which, with a supporting leafy green or yellow vegetable, will supply a nutritionally-valuable main course and at the same time use up leftovers in an attractive and appetizing way. For four people, use 3 cupfuls of coarsely ground cooked beef, lamb, veal or pork-supplement with 1/4 pound of ground, lightly cooked MEA liver. Add 2 onions chopped and lightly fried, 11/2 cups of drained canned or fresh tomatoes, 1 cup of left-over green vegetables or canned peas and liquid from peas or saved

Season. Turn into ovenware casserole or baking dish and top with fluffy mashed potatoes; pop in medium oven for twenty minutes till crust is browned.

Don't forget for real health you need every day: meat, milk, potatoes, green and yellow vegetables, tomato or citrus juice with other fruit and Canada Approved bread!
