Timely Recipes

RHUBARB UPSIDE DOWN CAKE

2 tablespoons melted butter
1-3 cup sugar
2 cups cut rhubarb
½ cup raisins

Topping

1½ cups pastry flour or
1 1-3 cups all-purpose flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 egg
½ cup milk
1-3 cup sugar
3 tablespoons melted fat

Wash and dice rhlbarb. Cover with boiling water and let stand five minutes; drain. Spread the melted butter over the bottom of a square cake pan, sprinkle over it the sugar, rhubarb and raisins.

Topping

Sift flour, baking powder, sugar and salt. Beat egg, add milk and shortening. Stir into dry ingredients, mixing only enough to combine. Do not beat till smooth. Pour batter over the fruit. Bake in a hot oven, 400F, for 25 minutes. Turn out on a serving dish and serve hot with top milk. Serves six.

CONDEMN "HANTS"

SOUTHAMPTON, England, May 21 (CP) — "Hants," contraction for Hampshire, is a word unfit to pass the lips of any Hampshire man or woman, Lord Mottisene, Lord Lieutenant of the county said at a business meeting. He was supported by Sir Vere Hobart who described it as a "horrible and vulgar post office abbreviation."

WHAT—IN AFRICA TOO

Austerity meals have been introduced in Kenya's and Tanganyika's hotels, restaurants and clubs.

SPORT CHAT

Henry Cotton, who once conquered sickness and rose to be one of the world's greatest golfers, has been invalided from the R. A. F. because of ill health. Now 36, Cotton is confined to his $45,000 home in Hertfordshire where, until he joined the air force three years ago he was professional at the Ashbridge Golf Club. He has been in failing health for several months but despite his illness played many exhibition matches for the Red Cross Fund. Before gaining international fame he was professional to the Waterloo Club in Brussels where he went after a long period of adversity in England. He planned to become Britain's No. 1 golfer and was determined to attain a high standard of physical and mental fitness. A Paris specialist worked out simple but tough plan of diet and exacting physical exercises and gradually a new Henry Cotton emerged. The one-time assistant professional at England's Fulwell course returned to his native health to astonish the golfing world with such feats as winning the British open four years in a row—1934-1957.

Aubrey Boomer, British International golfer who succeeded Cotton as Waterloo Club pro, took his drive and the ball landed on the "fairway' — a sunbaked stretch along the banks of a Persian river. That's the best course Lieut. Boomer of the Royal Engineers can find at present. But he plays when he can get a little time off from looking after the welfare of thousands of British and Indian troops who transport stores and equipment to the 10th Army and to Russia. Aubrey's last game on a recognized course was with King Leopold of Belgium at Waterloo a few days before the Nazis invaded the country. This desert course boasts nine holes with sun-dried grass "greens.' Boomer is known in golfing circles throughout the world. Former holder of French, Belgian, Netherlands and Italian open championships, he also represented Britain in Ryder Cup matches against America in 1926-27 and 1929. Now 45, he was with with the British Coastal Motor-Boat Service in the First Great War.

Our City

Prince Rupert is not a nice town,
Some newcomers say with a frown.

They came here for a job to do
And say they'll be glad when it is through.

Prince Rupert is not to blame for this,
Just because there is something amiss.

Prince Rupert is growing mighty fast,
Its small town ways are in the past.

Don't condemn, it's not to blame
Because lacking enjoyment it's a shame.

Prince Rupert also has a job to do
And will be glad when it is through.

—HUGH S. CARNIE.
