Try New, Improved Ovaltine

Children who are thin, nervous and under par, science has discovered, are often found to be eating foods which do not give them enough of the essential food elements everyone needs for health.

As a "protecting" food-drink, New, Improved Ovaltine adds to a child's meals the essential food elements most likely to be deficient in his diet.

Three servings of New, Improved Ovaltine furnish a child with a significant portion of his daily requirement of Vitamins A, B₁, and D, and the minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron-also quick food-energy elements and high quality proteins-all for building sturdy bodies.

So-if your child is thin, nervous, under par, or eats poorly, why not start giving him New, Improved Ovaltine regularly? Get a tin at drug or food store.

Ernest Meadows, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Meadows of this city and 11:00 a.m.-Morning Prayer and formerly of the Post Office staff here, is second officer of the former Canadian National Steamships steamer Lady Nelson which is now between Canada and Great Britain.

One of the year's most spectacular films, "Yankee Doodle Dandy," shows at the Capitol Theatre today, Friday and Saturday. It tells the life story of America's great showman—George M. Cohan. It tells that story through the songs and plays that he wrote—his vaudeville and legitimate stage career and through the inspiration held gave to others. It is the life story of a man, but it is also the life story of show business from the 1880's until today.

James Cagney plays the role of George M. Cohan. The cast is made up of Joan Leslie, a naive girl who wants to get on the stage. She meets George M. Cohan and he gives her a chance to do a song and dance act. However, he decides she'd make a better wife than a vaudevillian, and she becomes Mrs. George M. Cohan. The Four Cohans are made up of Walter Huston; |-Rosemary DeCamp, Jeanne Cagney and George himself. Sam Harris, the theatrical producer who played an important part in Cohan's life, 3 portrayed by Richard Whorf. Fay Templeton, who was the country's heart-throb at the turn of the century, is played by Irene Man-

All George M. Cohan's unforgettable melodies are played, including "The Yankee Doodle Boy," 'Give My Regards to Broadway," and "Over There."
