MUSSOLINI'S SELL-OUT ROME-A crisis in the Fascist Grand Council over military policy is reported to have been the direct cause of Premier Benito Mussolini's resignation. Il Duce presented a German plan whereby southern and central Italy would have been abandoned and a stand against the Allies taken up along the Po River far to the north. This was rejected 19 to 6 by the Grand Council and Mussolini then resigned. WAKE ISLAND BOMBED WASHINGTON, D.C.,— United States bombers attacked Wake Island yesterday. Nine of the thirty Japanese planes which rose to fight off the attack were shot down. One American plane failed to re-
