To Tell Story Later ...

The big news in Prince Rupert these days is the war vast numbers of regimental dances week delivering the books in the within one point of the third place but, for obvious reasons, Prince Rupert's war story can- now that I feel the ladies are do- quantities required at the various not be told today. When the war is over the story will be told. Meanwhile Prince Rupert newspapermen, with bigger things going on all around them than the place has ever seen before and the like of which were only dreamed about, are Prince Rupert's most unhappy men. There is nothing more disagreeable than the frustrated nose for news.

There is so much going on in Prince Rupert these days that it is difficult for us to keep track of it all.

Here is a community geared for the needs of a normal six or seven thousand people having thrust upon it with- vices and in future—on with the in the short space of a year a population of three times the number or more--a population demanding goods and services and with the wherewithal, due to a great new industrial activity, ready to pay for them.

Prince Rupert has dreamed boom and prosperity ever since its birth some thirty odd years ago. Now the busy. boom is here but, due to wartime conditions and restrictions, Prince Rupert is unable to take advantage of it night dance and junior hostesses would take the trouble to look into because she cannot gear herself to it.

Yes, the war is the thing in Prince Rupert and Prince Rupert is playing an important part in the war. Some day soon we may be able to tell the story.

Meanwhile, we will just have to satisfy ourselves with the knowledge that we are now really on the man-realistically enough in this Pacific theatre - even if it took a war to do it.

We newspapermen in Prince Rupert will come into our own when the war is over and peacetime pursuits for and happy. Mrs. Webb has joined as any citizen with any sense of which we are being so well equipped will be the follow- him and they are comfortably set- responsibility and appreciation up of our very substantial war effort. Then we can tell tied and like the pioneer type of would be only too glad to give all all about it.
