From The Waterfront

Writing from Vancouver to which city he was transferred some time ago, Stave Mellor, former chief operator of the Digby Island wireless station, tells of missing his power cruiser - now anchored in the Gorge at Victoria-more than anything since he moved south.

Later in the year he plans on bringing the smart little vessel over to Vancouver although there may be some difficulty in finding mooring conveniences there. Mr.

and Mrs. Mellor have taken up resi-but DON'T WORRY about ITAMINS and MINERALS ou know authorities say the fference between husky youngsters d those who are poor eaters, nderweight, and nervous is often mply a matter of an adequate poly of vitamins and minerals. But don't worry about them!

oungsters who eat 3 average good eals including fruit juice, and drink glasses of Ovaltine each day are tting all the extra vitamins and inerals they need. In addition to well-balanced food values, the lew. Improved Ovaltine adds signicant amounts of Vitamins A, B1, and and the minerals Calcium, hosphorous and Iron. So, if your hild is not developing normally, good meals plus 2 glasses of New, Improved Ovaltine will give him all the extra Vitamins and Minerals he needs.
