SWANSEA, Wales ©—Welsh workers have no legal right to refuse to work in England, Sir Marlay Samson, Swansea magistrate, ruled in fining a 24-year-old girl the equivalent of $112 for failing to obey a National Selective Service order to work in Birmingham. The girl said she was prepared to work within reach of her home.

Naval Revue Being Staged

Tonight, tomorrow night and Friday nights have been chosen by the new concert organization of H.M.C.S. Chatham, popularly styled "Chatty Hams," to present their latest revue. This group of sailors who have already given their first show in Prince Rupert have been planning this new revue for a long time.

Under the skillful and capable leadership of Chester Le Maistre, the popular Y.M.C.A. supervisor, who has planned the whole production, the "Chatty Hams" are said to have reached a new goal in amateur theatricals.

Special music is being near, for the first time having been written especially for the show by Dick Haddon (Hollywood) and Freddy Grant (Toronto) and Lieut. Don Adams, the special services officer in Chatham, who has trained the choruses.

The Naval Band under the baton of Chief Petty Officer Sunderland, will be in the "pit" and will accompany the songs and dances.

Special lighting and sound equipment has been brought in to help create a new effects and a fine stage has been built by Lieut. Wellers' capable maintenance party, Le Maistre, Lt. Adams and Mrs. Dorothy Garbutt have designed and executed several very attractive scenic backdrops that are causing a lot of interest amongst the ratings.

Admission is open to all service men and women and their civilian friends in the Prince Rupert area following a desire of the Naval Officer in charge, Commander C. M. Cree for the Navy, to be hosts to as many as can possibly attend.

To The Electors . . .

Don't fail to cast your vote for the man that built the new Post Office and relieved the congestion of mail at Prince Rupert, who has been working as a plater in the Dry Dock and is now operating Poulsen's Grocery and has served on School Boards in Alberta.

I consider myself qualified to work for the City and the Taxpayers and solicit your vote on December 16 as a Non-partisan Candidate for Alderman — the man that brings results.

—CARL POULSEN.

MUST CARE FOR DOGS
LONDON ©—A kennel-maid received an annuity of $900 to be reduced by $22.50 a year on the death of each of 20 dogs left in her care by the will of Mrs. Harriet Mossockles. The dogs are pedigreed Japanese poodles and took many prizes at shows. Terms of the will forbid the maid to "sell or part with any of them."
