ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

I suppose now is as good a time as any to ask you what you are going to do with the toys the children have grown out of and which will be replaced at Christmas with new ones. The long and short of it is that our toy box is getting like Mother Hubbard's cupboard. Right now it's pretty bare. As the kiddies corner is in constant use and the wear and tear on the toys is pretty severe we could do with any you can spare, providing they are still usable as toys.

The Service Wives' Club met Thursday afternoon in Ladies' Lounge at the "Y". The attendance was a record one with twenty-three members and fourteen children present. Seven new ladies were welcomed—Mrs. Fasolan, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. Dicks, Mrs. Duperrault, Mrs. Kuttner, Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. Dvornek. This week the raffle, donated by Mrs. Belanger, was won by Mrs. Moore. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Kaye. The gifts have now arrived and Mrs. Strand would like all who can to come and help her wrap them up on Monday evening next. Also all the kiddies names for the party should be in by Monday at the latest.

Next week is to be gala week in the entertainment line. The local navy show which has been in rehearsal for some time past will give three performances in the Navy Drill Hall on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. On Wednesday and Thursday evenings the performance is for personnel of all the services and each service man or woman may bring a civilian guest. Friday night will be reserved for officers and their guests as well as for those of the services who have missed the earlier shows by reason of being on duty. Admission is free. From the bits and pieces of the show I have heard I'm telling you "The Chatty Hams" are putting on real entertainment and anyone who misses it, well, it's just too bad.

LONDON —Conscription in youth organizations has been advocated by Norman T. C. Sargent, vice-chairman of the Alliance of Honor, as a means of stemming what he called the "landslide in sex morals" among young girls.

SWANAGE, Dorsetshire, Eng. —Lily, Hazel, Ivy, Iris and Pansy Gillingham, daughters of Mrs. J. Gillingham, have joined the Auxillary Territorial Service as cooks.
