We are in favor of making life easier and pleasanter for everyone but we are curious about who is going to do the work. Because, behind that phrase "out of the public treasury" there hides that uncomfortable fact that the only public treasury is taxes, drawn from the money that somebody got by work. The justifiable magnitude of the sums now being obtained by taxes of one kind and another, and the necessarily vast war efforts being paid for out of these sums, obscures for some people the the young preached.
