A. M. Borland, until recently with the Union Steamship Co. office here, was in the city yesterday afternoon bound from Vancouver to Whitehorse where he has accepted a position as accountant with the White Pass and Yukon route.

At last night's meeting of the Chamber of Commerce there was a communication from the British Columbia Natural Resources Conservation League, of which Hon. H. H. Stevens is one of the leading spirits, drawing attention to the important part that reforestation and tourist traffic would play in after the war development and urging that preservation of these resources be ensured.

Archie Shiel, president of the Pacific American Fisheries from Bellingham, was here yesterday afternoon bound for a trip to Juneau and other Alaska points on business in connection with the canning interests of his company.

Trustee C. G. Ham told the school board at its meeting last night that there was no report ready in regard to the Booth Memorial High School grounds. Neither were there reports from the committees on the other schools.

A letter from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce in regard to the "pay as you earn" income tax proposal was presented at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. As the plan has already been adopted in the budget, it was felt that it need not be further discussed.

Peter Brass and Bill Shrubbsall who left here Christmas Eve having received their call from the Royal Canadian Air Force, having successfully passed their examinations after taking a course in aircraft instruction. They are now going to Vancouver Technical School for further training.

A communication from the Prince Rupert and District Teachers' Association in regard to the proposal that the provincial government should take over the financial responsibility for education in this province was read at last night's meeting of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce. The chamber had invited a speaker to address the meeting but, as none appeared, no action was taken on the matter.

An "IF" For Boarders

(With apologies to the late Rudyard Kipling)

If you would find a room where all around you
Are just too glad that you have to stay,
If you would keep the room that we have found you
And not be asked at once to go away,
If with your hostess you would put relations
Upon the friendliest footing from the start,
And save so many needless complications—
Then read and take these few wise words to heart.

If you would keep a room—then keep it tidied,
And pay the rent upon the day it's due.
By this oft-broken rule you'd best be guided
To act as you would have folks act to you.
Try to remember those who sleep above you
Before experimenting with the dialling tone
And if you really want to make them love you
Don't spend a lifetime at their telephone.

If you're a smoker do not strew your ashes
Across the carpet, furniture and hearth,
If late at night avoid all bangs and crashes.
And don't spend fifty minutes in the bath.
Remember when you wash don't leave your washing
In drooping wreaths that wetly drip and wilt—
For other folk it's most unpleasant sloshing
Basecot about in puddles you have spilt.

If friends come in, keep hours and voices seemly.
If you take meals punctual to the dot—
You'll find that it annoys a cook extremely
To waste a meal or try to keep it hot.
If you're a girl who needs a lot of warning
Before you wake—then get a clock that chimes;
You can't expect that every single morning
Your hostess wants to call you twenty times.

We know that it is very trying
To leave your home to follow duty's call
Girls from the East and West are daily "why-ing"
They ever left their own home town at all.
But if you keep yourself and room in order
You need not worry that you're far away
From home, for you will be the perfect boarder
The guest that anyone would like to stay

—ELLA WEBB.

Circular correspondence from the Federal Department of Labor, in regard to compulsory collective bargaining, a booklet entitled "Testing the 'Isms,'" votes and proceedings of the legislature and annual report of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation were referred to by the secretary at the meeting last night of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce.

unless you women take their places

Right now there are hundreds of Canada's young airmen who are eager to get into the thick of the fight—but are grounded. They must carry on the many essential jobs on the ground—in the offices, hangars, meteorological departments, control towers and equipment depots until airwomen replace them.

These are jobs women can do—and are doing. Are you ready to don an R.C.A.F. uniform and let a young airman fly and fight? Are you ready to play your part in the biggest show on earth?

There are forty different kinds of work you can do in the R.C.A.F. The training is thorough and will be valuable to you after the war—no matter what you do. Splendid opportunities for advancement if you join now!

The R.C.A.F. needs girls, ages 18 to 45, with at least High School Entrance. Apply at your nearest R.C.A.F. Recruiting Centre, bringing proof of education and birth certificate. EXCELLENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR PROMOTION.

Airwomen are needed for these and many other trades:

Clerks . . . Fabric Workers . . . Stenographers . . . Transport Drivers . . . Cooks . . . Photographers.

Send for this free booklet about airwomen in the R.C.A.F. Write: Director of Manning, R.C.A.F., Jackson Building, Ottawa, or the nearest Recruiting Centre listed below.
