Coal Situation Major Problem in Old Land

Miners Claim Great Manpower Increase is Needed to Bring Production up to Nation's Minimum Requirements.

By DOUG HOW (Canadian Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, Nov. 12 (CP)—Britain's restive coal front, lulled by the persuasion of the Prime Minister, is lulled only. The storm has not died. Mr. Churchill's victory in the coal debate averted a serious division in the ranks of the Commons and his Government is now considering by what methods it can better conduct operational control of the mines to meet a situation in which an already inadequate production is faced with the increasing demands of a developing military victory.

Honor of War Dead

Remembrance Day Observed With Parade, Service and Placing of Wreaths.

With parade, service at the cenotaph and placing of poppy wreaths, solemn tribute was again paid yesterday morning at the armistice hour of 11 o'clock to the glorious dead of the First Great War. Thus the twenty-fifth anniversary of the ending of that war was commemorated on Remembrance Day. The proceedings were simpler and briefer than usual on this occasion and the principal participants were veterans themselves. However, women's organizations were also represented and among the participants in the placing of wreaths was Mayor W. M. Watts as well as the 102nd Battalion, Moose Lodge and Oddfellows.

WAR NEWS

BATTLE OF RUSSIA
LONDON — Amid reports that the Germans have already begun to evacuate the Crimean Peninsula by sea, Russian shock troops are plowing steadily westward from captured Kiev after a twenty-seven mile drive which the Russians say netted them more than one hundred towns and villages. Moscow communique says the Russians have battled to within sixty miles of Korosten key rail city northwest of Kiev, to increase threat of encirclement of Germans still battling in the lower western Ukraine. In the Crimea, the Russians, fighting to extend beachheads on Kerch Peninsula, repulsed fierce German counter-attacks.

BATTLE OF ITALY
ALGIERS — The Germans staged nine furious counter-attacks in twenty-four hours but the Anglo-American Fifth Army drove a three-mile wedge into the Mignano-Venafro area against the core of the greatly reinforced Nazi winter line, it is announced. All counter attacks were thrown back with artillery and infantry fire taking a heavy toll. Enemy resistance is almost equally stubborn along the entire line but the British Eighth Army on the east has consolidated positions on high ground overlooking the Sangro River.
