ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT
The Hostess

Corporal Hodgson of the Air Force accounts section at Seal Cove is anxious to find a partner for the royal and ancient game of chess. Players may leave their names with me or get in touch with Corp. Hodgson themselves.

Starting Monday Merve Thomas, on duty in the hut, is going to hold euchre drives in the ladies' lounge at the "Y" in the evenings. He says it's a fascinating game and very popular in the recreation centres in the east. He thinks a lot of eastern boys might be interested in taking up the game again. So come out and learn. It's a lot of fun and a good card game!

Don't forget that the regular Thursday night dance at the Highway regiment is cancelled this evening.

Tomorrow night the boys at Fairview are holding their dance.

Bob Gibson says that he saw one of our kittens up in Ketchikan. They showed it to him and said it was from the "Y" in Prince Rupert. As both our "Sarges" have disappeared, the boy "Sarge" and the girl "Sarge," I feel it must be one of them. How our cats travel! It's just about a year ago that "Pearl," one of the Harbor twins, went off on a freighter to England.

For some time now the "Y" folks have been going out occasionally after work, around midnight that is, for a dish of chow mein. The food has been grand and it's about the only place left open at that hour. The service boys often take their girls there after a dance. The atmosphere has been free and easy and, if at times it went a little beyond the beyond, well, we paid no attention. But the other night capped everything when a party in one of the booths started in on a series of barrack room ballads in what the booksellers call an unexpurgated edition. I know the answer to that will be, "You don't have to go, do you?" But it is a public place and a popular one and it seems a pity that in a town of so few restaurants the pleasure of the many should be subjugated to the license of the few.

Reserves Fall To Signals

By the narrow but sufficient margin of one to nothing Signals defeated Reserve in their match in the Gilhuly soccer cup series at the Acropolis grounds on Tuesday night. A large crowd of servicemen attended the game which was fast and lively enough for the taste of any fan.

Sid Woodside refereed with his usual alacrity and clear sightedness and the low scoring was indicative of a hard fought match.

Tonight the Signals meet the Ontarios on the same grounds. Gilhuly Cup standings are as follows:

Air Force	2	0	4
Reserves	1	1	2
Signals	1	2	2
Navy	1	1	2
Ontario	0	1	0
