ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT

We're glad to see Pat Trant back from his vacation. Pat is a bear for work and actually came back from leave two weeks ahead of time! He looks very fit indeed and the holiday seems to have benefitted him.

Not to be outdone by the WD's, the CWAC forces had their own wedding last Friday when Pte. Gwen Ducker was married to Sergeant Prior of the Royal Canadian Engineers. The wedding took place at St. Andrew's Cathedral which was beautifully decorated with home garden flowers.

And talking about the service girls F-O Graham tells me that, by noon of the first day of the Fifth Victory Loan campaign, the WD's had oversubscribed their second quota and Barrack Block No. 27 WD proudly waves the Victory Loan pennant specially made for the winners by L.A.W. Scharff. The pennant has the Fifth Victory Loan design on it and is very cleverly made. The CWAC girls went over the top on the second day of the Victory Loan. Well done girls! By the way, didn't all the service girls look smart in the Sunday parade?

When out at the RCAF Group Headquarters the other day I saw the smartest and most ingenious gadget on the wall of one of the NCO's (WD) rooms. She had tacked up two outside frames or shells of large packets of cigarettes against the wall in line and her freshly ironed collars slipped in place as neat and tidy as you please.

The boys out at Montreal Circle need an electric iron, any sort. They can repair a broken one and have asked me to ask you.

Also the RCAMC nursing sisters are now in their new home which is furnished with the necessities but very few comforts. They could do with carpets, rugs, chairs and lamps. These girls work long, hard and the time they have off should be spent in comfort-

Memorial For Dr. Grant to Be Held Sunday

First Presbyterian Church, the building of which was carried out under his inspiration and leadership, will be the scene of a memorial service on Sunday morning in honor of the memory of the late Rev. Dr. Hugh R. Grant who died recently in Fort William, Ontario. Members of the congregation to which he ministered for so many years and by whom he was so dearly beloved will assemble in token of obsequial tribute. The memorial service will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. F. MacSween, and an interdenominational aspect will be given the proceedings through the presence as brief speakers of Rt. Rev. G. A. Rix, Bishop of Caledonia; P. H. Linzey, one of the leaders of First Baptist Church, and W. W. C. O'Neill, all of whom were old and personal friends of the late Dr. Grant.

able home-like surroundings. If anyone has such articles—in a reasonable state of repair—would they get in direct touch with the RCAMC Nurses Home or Mrs. Garbutt at the 'Y'?
