ALLIES IN INITIATIVE

War Outlook in Pacific Theatre Is Improved

WASHINGTON, D.C., June 29 - The United States now holds the initiative in the Pacific war and the tide has turned to the point where the Japanese are in general withdrawal towards their home bases. This was declared yesterday by the chief of United States naval Staff following announcement that United States submarines had sunk eight more Japanese ships, including one destroyer, one minelayer and six supply craft and seriously damaged three others. This makes 269 enemy vessels sunk, probably sunk or damaged. Allied bombers were busy with thirteen bombing attacks from the Aleutians to the Solomons. There have been seven more air raids on Kiska and six on the Solomons. The camp area, ground personnel, air field and gun emplacements at Kiska were pounded. There were 16 raids there in three days since the week-end.

OTTAWA, June 29 (CP) - Malcolm MacDonald, British High Commissioner to Canada, said today that at least fourteen enemy submarines were sunk in the past two weeks and predicted an Allied assault on Europe would start very soon. He told a press conference that "we have had a dead submarine served up for breakfast every day and added that "the Allies are obviously approaching another great crisis of the war."

IS TALKING OF DEFEAT

Publication in London Says Nazi Leaders Arranging for Best Way Out

LONDON, June 29 (CP) - The Nazis have started to lay the foundations of an underground movement for the time when Germany has been defeated, according to "Die Zeitung," German-language newspaper published in London. Plans have been prepared, the paper said. Certain members of the Nazi party are to be "excluded," or will voluntarily resign, so that after military defeat they will be able to claim they were purged and therefore are not Nazis.

WHY NOT JULY 4?

Berlin Propaganda Claims That Things Will Begin to Pop July 3

NEW YORK, June 29 (CP) - The Germans reached into their propaganda bag today and set a new date, July 3, for the anticipated Allied onslaught against the Axis. This new version was broadcast by the German radio, and attributed to London reports reaching Stockholm, but there was no elaboration concerning the point or points at which the Germans expected the blow.

LEGHORN BLASTED

Area Hidden for Hours by Smoke - Cruiser and Supply Ships Hit

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, June 29 (CP) - One hundred Flying Fortresses smashed the northern Italian port of Leghorn with several hundred tons of bombs yesterday, damaging a light cruiser and four supply ships and creating havoc in oil tanks, railway yards and industrial plants. Bombers hammered at the city for nine concentrated minutes and returned home without loss. Allied headquarters announced. The bombers created such ruin that the official report said that "five hours after the raid the entire port was still so heavily covered by smoke that accurate inspection of the damage was then impossible."

REVISIT COLOGNE

Follow Pattern for Destruction of Reich Industrial Cities

LONDON, June 29 (CP) - The Royal Air force returned in great strength last night to Cologne where one thousand bombers blasted 300 acres of destruction in May 1942 and laid a pattern for city-by-city razing of German war industry. British heavy bombers also struck at Hamburg, submarine building centre, and continued the mine-laying that official sources announced yesterday had caused the sinking of at least 400 Axis vessels since the beginning of the war. Twenty-five bombers were listed as missing, two of them Canadian.

FISHING IS SLOW

Skeena River Boats Not Getting Heavy Catches - Many of Them Not Yet Out

Reports from the Skeena River where the season for the fishing of sockeye opened Sunday evening indicate a light run. Up to today only about two-thirds of the boats were out but it is expected the balance will be out by the end of this week. Early reports on gill-net fishing in the Skeena indicate an average of about eight fish for boats fishing in the river and 16 outside. The highest boat so far reported had 72 fish. On the Naas River the fishing appears to be considerably better than on the Skeena with an average of 59 fish per boat and high boat of 137.
