Whifflets From The Waterfront

A week-end hunting party included that which visited Winter Harbor and Khutzamateen Inlet with Capt. Sam Hougan on the halibut boat Tramp. The party did not have great success in the quest for birds but ran into a good crab field and made quite a catch of crustaceans.

CLIMATE MAKES DOUGH

LONDON, (CP) — Sir Herbert Williams, M.P., says Britons have become the richest people in the world per capita "largely because of the climate which has created the British character."

NOT ERSATZ

The German Army cook book recommends that small amounts of soybean flour be added to almost every item on the menu.
