Keeping Healthy . . .

To guard one's health is a patriotic duty. More than ever is this so at this time. The country needs the most efficient work from all its people and one cannot be efficient if one is not well.

Medical aid is at a premium in these days of war shortages. Therefore it behooves us all to know and exercise the simple health rules about rest, fresh air and diet so that we may conserve medical consultation.

Of course, where there is reason to believe that medical care is already necessary, there should be no further delay in obtaining it so that a minimum of such attention will be necessary.

There are more facilities than ever today to help us keep well although there are also many pitfalls to good health. It is up to us to take the best advantage of the former and to resolutely steer clear of the latter.

The Rome radio inflicts such losses on the Allies that the Italian people must wonder how ever the Axis lost Africa.

The Music of the Pipes . . .

The decision of the learned judges of the Appeal Court of British Columbia that the playing of bagpipes on the streets does not constitute a "loud and objectionable noise" has aroused emotions of varying intensity in the hearts of many Canadians. Pipers, of course, are jubilant, and Scots generally concur in the soundness of the judgment. A minority, perhaps, is not amused.

The case arose when a solitary piper, marching up and down a residential street in Vancouver, was arrested and sent to jail for six months for creating a nuisance, blocking traffic, and what not. Children, it appears, crowded around him and enjoyed the piping.

The appeal court reversed the judgment of the lower court and the piper at this very moment may be marching up and down his favorite street, filling the air with the music of the Highlands.

A vision of every street in every city and hamlet in Canada with its own marching piper is one to make strong men shudder. Fortunately, it is grossly exaggerated. Piping is not yet a universal art. No doubt if it showed signs of epidemic tendencies, the British Columbia judges would think seriously of reversing themselves! And this is no slur on the music of the pipes; a concert piano or a symphony orchestra in the street would be equally out of place.

Sea gulls around an army camp in Utah are said to have learned to recognize mess calls. Evidently the gulls have a keen appetite and a high I.Q.

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT The Hostess

After my telling you we weren't to have a kitten M.S. Miller in the canteen has promised one of the units she would take one so I guess we'll get "Victoria" after all. It seems the mice have been getting pretty bad in there and the girls were getting fed up on having an armful of mouse each time they opened a cupboard door. Besides Janet has run out of screams. Mrs. Miller promises to oversee its basic training.

There are two dances on this week's list. On Thursday night the "Support Company" of the new regiment is holding its first dance. Junior hostesses will meet at the Y where there will be transportation to take them out to the camp. Y W C A chaperones representing the Women of the Moose will be in attendance. On Friday the Women's Auxiliary of a Coast battery are holding a dance at the Empress bassadors of goodwill," he said. "I don't think the Russians play rugby but the R.A.F. and Army teams might fly there to demonstrate it, and the Russians could come and show us their sports, of which we know little."

Y Hall. Junior hostesses are cordially invited to attend. Chaperones will be from the members of the Women's Auxiliary holding the dance.

Here's from a letter from Jack McIldoon who used to be in the Navy Signals and left here about two months ago after being in Prince Rupert over two years. His brother George was up here at the same time on one of the patrol ships. He says . . . "Many things have happened since I left good old Prince Rupert. After I was drafted to Victoria I was only in there for a few days and then they drafted me to Halifax so I really got around . . . I guess you'll be lonely since the McIldoons left. You know we about owned the town. I wish I was back there. Halifax doesn't go with me. I used to think how nice it would be to leave Rupert but when I got here and went to sea I thought what a darn fool I'd been to leave. I saw a couple of the kids Jimmie Thompson and some that were on my brother's ship. They all send their regards to you. Have you seen Maurice Reeves? Tell him I received seven days scale for our little stopover in Montreal. I guess I won't have a chance to beat you in crib but I may be up in a couple of years. Give my regards to the gang. Your friend, Jack M."

With so many of our Rupert boys in the South and East I think I'll make arrangements to have the papers sent to the Y M C A End House at Givenchy and the YMCA in Halifax. Don't you think it's a good idea?

Coal Fires All Fronts!

CANADA must increase coal production to maintain its war fronts—power for war plants, for railways, for merchantmen and fighting ships, heat for the nation's welfare.

Workers and mine operators must be aided in their vital task. More coal must be mined and delivered. Experienced coal mine workers must be added to mine staffs.

A Proclamation of His Excellency the Governor General in Council declares a national emergency to exist in regard to coal supply. An Order in Council provides Regulations to make men available to mine coal. These are the main points in the new Regulations:

- 1 EVERY EMPLOYER, REGARDLESS OF HIS INDUSTRY, must advise his employees of these Regulations, and he must assist in discovering whether any of his employees have had previous experience as coal mine workers.
- 2 EVERY EMPLOYEE, REGARDLESS OF HIS INDUSTRY, who has had previous experience as a coal mine worker, must report that fact to his employer.
- 3 A "COAL MINE WORKER" FOR THESE PURPOSES is anyone who, since January 1st, 1935, has worked under provincial certificate or license in or around a coal mine, or who, since the same date, has been employed for a total of at least 24 months in the production of coal (except at office work).
- 4 EVERY EMPLOYER, NOT A COAL MINE OPERATOR, must report in writing to a Selective Service Officer, full details on any of his employees who are ex-coal mine workers.
- 5 SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS ARE AUTHORIZED to require ex-coal mine workers to report for interview and to accept work at a coal mine.
- 6 SELECTIVE SERVICE OFFICERS MAY REQUIRE any man in any employment, if subject to Mobilization Regulations but rejected for Military Training, and certain others excused from Military Training, to accept employment at a coal mine.
- 7 NO COAL MINE OPERATOR may terminate the services of any coal mine worker without written permission from a Selective Service Officer.
- 8 NO COAL MINE WORKER may leave employment at a coal mine without written permission from a Selective Service Officer.
- 9 EVERY EX-COAL MINE WORKER, returning to the industry under these Regulations, will be paid wages at the established rate for the job at which he is placed; and the Government will pay wages of 40 cents an hour, 8 hours a day and 48 hours a week, to any ex-coal mine worker required to leave his present employment under these provisions, but not placed immediately at coal mining.
- 10 A BOARD ALLOWANCE of not more than $7.50 a week may be paid an ex-coal mine worker now returning to a coal mine, if required to live away from the residence of his dependents.
- 11 PRESENT AND FUTURE COAL MINE WORKERS will be granted postponement from Military Training to February 1st, 1944, by virtue of their occupation; and no coal mine worker will be accepted for voluntary enlistment in the Armed Forces of Canada, prior to February 1st, 1944, except under permit to enlist from a Selective Service Officer.
- 12 NO EMPLOYER IN CANADA, EXCEPT A COAL MINE OPERATOR, may solicit for employment or hire any ex-coal mine worker.
- 13 REGARDLESS OF ANY DOMINION OR PROVINCIAL LAW, male persons at least 16 years old may be employed as coal mine workers, and female persons at least 18 years old may be employed as surface coal mine workers.
- 14 WAR EMERGENCY TRAINING CLASSES will be available for training men as coal mine workers.
- 15 ANY EMPLOYER UNABLE TO REPORT IMMEDIATELY should advise the Employment and Selective Service Office of the date he will report.

Such is the substance of the new regulations. Full details may be had at any Employment and Selective Service Office. If these provisions require action on your part, you are urged in the national interest to act immediately. Severe penalties are provided for non-compliance, but the Government relies on the co-operation of the citizens of Canada to make prosecution unnecessary by prompt action as required. This is a grave emergency. Assist if you can.
