It is not a promise of ready can do the same for our day. I made solutions to these questions. No man who is honest can promise ready made solutions to many of the questions that face us. Rather, it is an attempt to discover a Christian basis for action as we face these problems.

The meetings that will be held during this week, which are announced elsewhere in this paper, are open to all those who are interested. We hope that people will feel free to come and take part in the meetings and discussion. -E. W. SCOTT.

late. I think, for the benefit of these recruits, I may as well restate some of our rules and regulations—they are not very stringent -as well as correct an error that cropped up yesterday and which may be more widespread than I think. First of all our National Young Women's Christian Association requests that girls do not smoke while on duty, nor wear slacks, nor leave the dance hall to go out for a coke or a short walk. These rules are very simple but they do make for orderliness and, so far, I have had the best of cooperation from the girls. The error I spoke of was that one of the hostesses thought that her pass card would allow her to come up to the recreation hut at any time without an escort. This is not so. Only girls having escorts may come to the Y Hut. Any other women using the facilities of the hali should be the wife of a service man on active service in Prince Rupert or the daughter or mother of such a person. Exceptions are made only at the hostess' discretion. This does not exclude our friends in town who take a kindly interest in the work we do and come up to see how we are getting along. We are always most anxious to see them. A new padre whom we welcome in our midst is Captain Miller. Everyone at the "Y" feels so grateful for the help the padres give us in various ways that we are always pleased to see them when they ar-
