Few Changes in Halibut Regulations Anticipated—Departure of Japanese Benefits White Fishermen — Agreement on Salmon Prices

In spite of some rather wild reports such as that fishing might be reopened much earlier this year and permitted to continue throughout the year, there is now little reason to anticipate that regulations governing the North Pacific halibut fisheries for the 1943 season will be much changed. The opening of the season, it is expected, will be April 15, the same as last year. No announcement has, however, been made as yet. It is expected the International Fisheries Commission may extend to thirty days following closure of all areas to halibut fishing the period in which halibut taken incidental to fishing for other species may be landed and sold. This time is now thirty days. Changes in the 1-7 ratio of pounds of halibut to pounds of other species is not anticipated.

There are definite indications that the removal of the Japanese from the fisheries of the British Columbia coast is proving economically beneficial to the white fishermen. Fishery production at Ucluelet on the West Coast of Vancouver Island has increased about four hundred percent since the departure of the Japanese, white fishermen in that area claim. These fisherman are urging the repatriation of Japanese to their own homeland after the war, suggesting that this provision be incorporated in the terms of peace.

After lengthy negotiations, agreement has been finally reached between the British Ministry of Food, the Canadian government and the canners for the 1942 pack of British Columbia canned salmon delivered, among other ports, at Prince Rupert or Skeena River rail terminal. The prices agreed upon, as compared with 1941, are as follows:

	"Grade A" 1941	"Grade A" 1942	"B" 1942
Sockeye:
1 lb. Tall	$12.50	$16.50	$12.75
½ lb. Flat	13.75	17.50	14.00
¼ lb. Flat	8.62½	10.50	8.75
Coho, Blueback, Red Spring, Steelhead:
Pink and Chum:
1 lb. Tall	$ 8.75	$11.50	$10.00
½ lb. Flat	10.00	12.75	11.25
¼ lb. Flat	6.75	8.12½	7.37½
Pink and Chum.
1 lb. Tall	$ 5.00	$ 6.25	$ 5.50
½ lb. Flat	6.25	7.50	6.75
¼ lb. Flat	4.37½	5.00	4.62½

Seiners were out of this port during the past week prospecting for herring but the weather was so cold that the nets froze and the fish were still found to be swimming deep. The prospecting was going on, among other places, around the mouth of Portland Inlet and in the vicinity of Porcher Island. It will need milder weather before there can be much doing in the way of herring seining.

Fancy prices have been paid at Seattle recently for almost all lines of fish. Ling cod has touched 19c per pound, rock cod getting a similarly high price.

NOT VERY CHEERFUL

No Rejoicing in Germany on Tenth Anniversary of Rise of Hitler

BERLIN, Jan. 30—The tenth anniversary of the rise to power of Adolf Hitler was celebrated with no fanfare or rejoicing in the Reich today. The course of events in Russia and North Africa is none too cheering for the Nazis or the German people. The people were forbidden to fly flags.

Vice-Chancellor Herman Goering gave a radio address to the army and Dr. Joseph Goebbels, propaganda minister, addressed the civilian population, issuing a proclamation.

Chancellor Adolf Hitler was not heard from.

FUN TEAM FEATURED

Hailed as one of the most elaborate and fuunniest of Abbot and Costello comedies, "Ride 'Em, Cow Boy," comes to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here as the feature offering next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Headliners in the large supporting cast are Dick Foran, Anne Gwynne, Johhny Mack Brown, Samuel S. Hinds and Ella Fitzgerald.

The background is an Arizona dude ranch which is the parade ground for the antics of the two stellar zanies with Indians, rodeo aces, bucking bronchos, wild steers and feminine pulchritude including bathing beauties and stunning cowgirls.

Romantic interest is carried by Miss Gwynne, Foran and Brown. Miss Gwynn is a rodeo star and daughter of the dude ranch owner. Foran is the author of best seller western novels who has never been west of Broadway while Brown is the ranch foreman.

Ella Fitzgerald, queen of swing makes her screen debut as the ranch cook, singing her own one-time hit tune "A Tisket, a Tasket."
