POIGNANT LOVE TALE

An intensely dramatic love story with Charles Boyer and Joan Fontaine in the leading roles, "The Constant Nymph" comes as the feature picture to the screen of the Capitol Theatre here on Monday and Tuesday of next week. Miss Fontaine is a shy, frightened young woman one of four daughters of a celebrated musician who goes to the Swiss Alps to reside. Appears Boyer in the role of a promising young composer whom Miss Fontaine is to marry but who becomes enamored of Alexis Smith, a glamorous figure in London society, and instead marries her. Too late Boyer realizes that the young girl he was so fond of was the young woman he really loved. The mood becomes troubled and poignant and the climax is along tender and tragic lines. A brilliant supporting cast includes Charles Coburn, Peter Lorre, Dame May Whitty, Jean Muir, Montagu Love, Joyce Reynolds and Edward Clannell.

There will be a special New Year's Eve midnight Matinee at the Capitol Theatre tonight with a stage show and Laurel and Hardy comedy.

As the bells ring in a glad New Year our thoughts turn in warm friendliness toward all of our friends and customers. We'd like you to know that we're wishing for you everything that is good. We hope that 1944 is very kind to you, and brings you nothing but joy, health and success.
