Prince Rupert

(By M. N. MacPhail)

Land of incessant rain
Which oft does give me pain!
The sun I seldom see
But that were not to be.
Prince Rupert has a place
Upon this world's fair face.
Tho' many discomforts we endure
That hoped for victory will insure.

Prince Rupert—what a name!
Given by one who earned his fame
Seeking wealth in the wilderness
With all its danger and its stress.
They ventured forth with firm resolve
Though many dangers would involve
This gallant army of the brave
Who sought the treasure they did crave.

The hardy pioneers have gone,
Leaving behind naught but renown.
From bush and hill they carved
Although often nearly starved.
A place that's fit for man.
So let us do the best we can
To make a name that will redound
Wherever hardy men are found!

Fine Concert At Kitsegukla

KITSEKUKLA, Dec. 31 — The children as well as the older folk took full enjoyment from a Christmas Tree entertainment which was held in this village on Christmas Eve. The program consisted of plays, songs, games and musical selections and, of course, Santa Claus paid a visit to distribute toys and other gifts for the children after which he engaged in dancing with them.

The music was directed by Walter D. Wesley, organist of the United Church, who, with Mrs. Wesley, has looked after the Christmas Tree entertainments here for eleven years. Mrs. J. Johnson assisted them on this occasion.

The program included community singing of Christmas carols and hymns, speeches by Walter Wesley, A. Howard and Chief James Weget.

Douglas Wesley presided at the piano for the dancing and Walter Wesley called the square dances in which Santa Claus and his wife participated, much to the enjoyment of all.

Apples were served to some three hundred persons attending by L. Russell, Douglas Wesley and Freddie Sampare who collected the substantial sum of $51.

Miss Gertrude Johnson, Mrs. W. Wesley and Walter Milton looked after the decorating of the Community Hall for the season.

Following the concert, forty members of the choir remained to sing carols there and on the streets, accompanied by Bert Russell.

Terrace Wedding Is Pretty Affair

TERRACE, Dec. 31—A pretty and interesting wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nash, Christmas Eve, when their only daughter, Miss Jessie Nash, became the bride of Brock Norberg of Nelson who is with the Royal Canadian Air Force. The padre of the Air Force, officiated.

The bride, attired in white wedding costume, was a lovely picture. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations. Miss Frances Hall of Terrace was the bridesmaid. Her bouquet was of red carnations. D. G. Kidd, also of the Royal Canadian Air Force, was groomsmen.

The house, which was prettily decorated, was thrown open for many friends to assemble and tender their congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple.
