Man Deceased Is Honored In Unusual Award

Gold Medal of R.C.H.A. Issued to Mark Heroic Action of Waterdown Resident Trying to Save Children

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 14 (CP) —Only eight times in the 50 years of Royal Canadian Humane Association awards for heroic deeds has the gold medal of that organization been issued. It is announced today that the eighth in the line has been awarded posthumously to Anthony Bennetti of Waterdown, Ont., for his heroic attempt to rescue three children from drowning in a gravel pond at Aldershot, Ont., June 18, this year.

The Association's citation reads: "Mr. Bennetti, a non-swimmer, not thinking of his own life but that of the children, jumped into the water fully clothed, to the children's rescue. When he got within a few feet of the children they all went under water."

Bronze medals of the Association are awarded to L. Bdr. William Bartlett and Jack Wilson, Burlington, Ont., for attempting to rescue two men from drowning in Lake Ontario, April 28. Bartlett and Wilson paddled out on a plank, using boards for paddles, till they came alongside the two men who had been dumped from their craft in choppy waters.

They were unable to bring the men in alive, however, and were themselves in a dangerous situation when they were rescued by Robert Neilson of Burlington, who is awarded the Association's parchment certificate.

Other Parchments

Parchment certificates are awarded also to the following Ontario people:

LAC. H. J. Webb, Brantford, for a rescue from drowning in the Grand River, April 22.

John MacLean, London, Ont., for rescue of a two-year-old from a burning house in London, Dec. 10, 1942.

Francis H. Kilbreath, Sarnia, Ont., fora rescue in the St. Clair River, April 6.

Ernest Blackman, Seeley's Bay, Ont., for a rescue in the St. Bay, May 19.

William G. Dobson and E. F. J. Swindall, of London, Ont., for saving a number of persons from possible electrocution in London, March 19.
