 The Hostess

The response to my request for wringers for the Veterans' Guard was wonderful. People phoned in all evening. Just another case of the goodwill of the Prince Rupert people and I do thank them most sincerely! The Veterans' Guard is now fixed up but I am keeping all the other names and addresses so any of the other service units who need a wringer may get in touch with me.

We lost two of our most popular "Y" persons Tuesday night when Connie and Hee MacKenzie left. Hee is on his way overseas with the "Y" and Connie will stay in Kamloops where her parents live. They will be missed especially in Prince Rupert sports circles. Yes,

"Skippy," their little fox terrier went along and, when last seen, was protesting vociferously over the indignity of the baggage car.

A week from tonight the "Support Company" of the new regiment in town is holding a dance at their quarters. They have taken over Thursday night as it was so successful with the outgoing regiment. Hostesses will meet as usual at the "Y" and transportation will be there to take them out.

Tonight we are holding a wedding reception in the ladies' lounge for Junior Hostesses Eileen Hamblin and Private Ralph de Coursey of the Americans. Eileen has been closely connected with the "Y" since first we started and we look upon it as a real family affair. We will wish the young couple much happiness in their married life.

I've had quite a number of letters from those in the services who have left here and—I don't think they are ribbing me—they nearly all wish they were back in Rupert.

Sergeant Spiro Gurvich is leaving tonight for a trip to Vancouver. Mrs. Gurvich and family are already in Vancouver.

I shall quote from a few from time to time.

Don't forget the CPO's and Petty Officers' dance tomorrow.

W. R. Motherwell . . .

Possibly no other single man did more in the interests of agriculture in Canada—particularly for the wheat farmers of the prairies—than did the late Hon. W. R. Motherwell, former Dominion and Saskatchewan minister of agriculture. He was known as the father of the co-operative movement among agrarians and it was in that field that he made his greatest contribution. Mr. Motherwell died Monday in Regina after an illness of several weeks at the age of 83. Many years ago in his ministerial capacity he visited Prince Rupert.

Delightfully vague, typically Churchillian—speaking informally to the British embassy staff in Washington, Prime Minister Churchill says there is a possibility the "proud Germany Army may collapse" but adds, "it would be folly to count on that possibility."

 CONGRATULATIONS TO BOULTER
 We congratulate Thomas Boulter of our local dry dock on his splendid work in the Fourth Victory Loan. We said in the yard it's up to Tommy to put it over the top and it's not a surprise to us that he did. Tommy Boulter had done it before and we know that he will do it again. We are proud to have such a man in the yard, and we will back him to the limit if such a time comes.

BOYS OF THE DRY DOCK

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Linzey are leaving tonight for a trip to Vancouver.

Industry is helping win the war . . .
 industry must help build a peacetime world

Today, all industries must produce as never before—must speed the output of food, tanks, planes, guns, ships and other instruments of war—must conserve vital supplies—that we may win quickly a decisive victory.

Tomorrow, all industries must continue to produce—beating swords into plowshares—to prevent world-wide unemployment leading to ultimate economic collapse.

If the world is to prosper, there must be the same cohesion among the United Nations during the transition period and thereafter as now exists during the world-wide conflict. Internal stability here and in other nations can be gained and maintained only by sustained industrial production and by interdependence.

The people of this country, in common with the people of other lands, will prosper materially and spiritually when this war is ended but only if plans world-wide in scope are formulated promptly for A JUST AND DURABLE PEACE.
