SHOW MUST GO ON--ARMITAGE

How Dickensian Interpreter and Cliff Leslie Made West Coast Appointment

The old adage, "the show must go on," as demonstrated by Captain Frank Guy Armitage, Y.M.C.A. entertainer to the armed forces in Canada, in his efforts to reach men in isolated posts, is described in a report received by the National Council Y.M.C.A. War Services in Toronto from Cliff Leslie, Y.M.C.A. war services supervisor at Nanaimo.

Captain Armitage served with the Y.M.C.A. in France during the last war and won the Military Cross for outstanding service in the field. He has been in Prince Rupert after nearly completing his second trip across Canada visiting naval bases, army camps and air force stations, where he has entertained thousands of troops with his unique impersonations of Dickens' characters, skits and the art of ventriloquism.

There is no hazard too great for Armitage if he is scheduled to put on a show. This was demonstrated recently, when accompanied by Cliff Leslie, he travelled on a barge through storm waters to stage a performance for sailor lads at a naval repair base off the West Coast, which before the war had been a Japanese base for fishing vessels.

On arrival the auditorium was found to be the loft of an old Japanese fish-packing shed. "Daylight could be seen between the boards, and rain poured freely through the roof," said Leslie. There was no stage and only two small lights. "By far the oddest set-up I have ever shown in," remarked Armitage, and then he set to work. What he accomplished in one hour in the way of improvising a stage, footlights and stage props was miraculous, according to Leslie. He wrote, "It was amazing to see this old loft undergo a total transformation under the deft hands of Captain Armitage, becoming suddenly a theatre of much splendor, with splashes of ruby, amber and green lighting effects."

When the stage was set the men were piped aboard for the presentation. The building was cold and damp so they came in their heavy 'peajackets,' one even wearing a sou-wester complete with oilskin hat. He was promptly named 'Tarpaulin' by Captain Armitage and 'came in' for a lot of kidding.

Leslie said, "Captain Armitage gave a masterful performance to a total of twenty men tucked

Thanksgiving At Kispiox

KISPIOX, Oct. 16—At a special Thanksgiving service held in the Kispiox United Church on Sunday, in which Silas Johnston, Moses Morrison, Chris Harris, and Steve Morrison took part, the Thanksgiving spirit was given practical meaning when the congregation more than doubled the offering of last year with donations of over $70.

The special service followed the annual Thanksgiving service to which the natives turned out in large numbers, filling the church.

Col. S. D. Johnston, M.C., V.D., after spending a few days here, left this morning on his return to Vancouver.

JIVE AND CLASSICS

"Mister Big," Musical Comedy, Is Feature Picture for Monday And Tuesday at Capitol Theatre

Jive versus the classics is the theme of "Mister Big," the feature picture for next Monday and Tuesday at the Capitol Theatre in which a gang of jive-minded youngsters mix boogie-woogie with highbrow compositions at a school of the theatre. Donald O'Connor, one of Hollywood's favorite juvenile performers, is starred and headlined with him are Gloria Jean and Peggy Ryan while other popular players in the cast are Robert Paige, Elyse Knox, Samuel S. Hinds and Bobby Scheerer. Singing and dancing are featured throughout the picture with specialties contributed by Ben Carter Choir and Ray Eberle with Eddie Miller's Bob Cats.

At the school of the theatre directed by Hinds, where the youngsters study drama and the serious arts, instructors Robert Paige and Elyse Knox are in love. Donald O'Connor, Gloria Jean and Peggy Ryan want to become singers and dancers. The owner of the school, Florence Bates, has selected Sophocles' "Antigone" as the year's class play but the pupils are determined to stage a musical comedy written by Donald. The director agrees to let the youngsters have their way.

Miss Bates is infuriated but won over when Broadway producers become enthused with the show and sign up the youngsters.

Whifflets From The Waterfront

Manager Quisenberry of Tall-heo cannery in the Bella Coola area and members of the cannery crew, were here overnight going through to Vancouver to spend the winter now that the salmon canning season is over. Mrs. Quisenberry was here with her husband.

Niek Mazzoni, accountant of Sunnyside cannery on the Skeena River, left there this afternoon for Vancouver to spend the winter.

IS REAL WAR

This is not a phoney war. The Canadian Army is in the thick of the fight. The only way we can win is on the field of battle. If physically fit and between 18 and 45 you are eligible for the Active Army, which is still an entirely volunteer Army.

Visit your nearest Army Recruiting Office today. Don't delay.

WORK HOURS spell "Victory"

To supply our men on the fighting fronts, to assist the United Nations and to maintain essential services on the home front, requires every ounce of energy of the Canadian public.

This is total war, with liberty the prize. Canadians realize we can not win that prize without hard, steady work.

Under a recent order, issued in pursuance of National Selective Service Civilian Regulations, thousands of Canadians—employers and employees—are expected to forego some part of their peacetime liberty in regard to employment matters, in order that the Nation's war machine may increase its pace—rather than operate at less than capacity.

In order to conserve the working forces in war industries and essential services, Employers and employees alike are urged to strike a blow for freedom! Keep production at full capacity!

this order requires that no male employee be released, nor may he separate, from a job in either of the two top labour priorities—"A" and "B"—without first securing special permission from a National Selective Service Officer.

The order bears equally on employer and employee: both are restrained from any wastage of man hours through needless labour turnover.

An employer is obligated to post a notice in the form prescribed, where his plant or undertaking is covered by the order, so that his employees will be informed of the regulations as applying to them.

All are urged to comply in the national interest. Penalties are provided for failure to comply.

Anyone wishing information is requested to enquire at the nearest Employment and Selective Service Office.
