RATION NEWS

Last Call for Canning Sugar

You have less than a week-until April 15 to be exact - to send in your Application for Canning Sugar to your Local Ration Board, Fill out your own Application Form in your Ration Book. State the number of persons for whom you are applying. Then attach the Application Forms of others you will be feeding in your household, after you have filled in their serial numbers. Pin them to your application and mail immediately to your Local Ration Board.

Ration Book No. 1

Before discarding your Ration Book No. 1, tear off the cover and number which, for ration purposes, will be yours for the duration. Put it away in a safe place for future reference.

Boarding Houses

If a boarding house keeper uses, for canning sugar, application from the Ration Book of guests, and if these guests later move to some other place, it will be up to the guest and the boarding house keeper to settle the matter between themselves. Neither the local Ration Board nor the Ration Administration can handle details of this kind.

Home Canning Programme

Objective The objective of the Home Canning Campaign is to have women do up the Greatest Amount of Fruit with the Least Amount of Sugar. This automatically puts the emphasis on Home Canning rather than on Jam or Jelly. on which is printed the prefix Canning Sugar must not be used for canning Dried Fruits, Pickles, Vegetables, Marrow, Pumpkins, Tomatoes of making Homemade Wines. If sugar is used for any of the above it must be taken from your regular weekly ration.

Summer Tourists

Tourists staying in Canada for longer than eight weeks who require sugar for canning, must make application to a Local Ration Board. If the application is granted, it will be on the same basis as the Canadian citizen's allowance.

This column will appear in this newspaper every week to keep you up-to-date on Ration News. Clip and keep for reference.
