H. T. Lock, the chairman, was of the opinion that for this year individual effort should be encouraged owing to lack of time to organize any group method.

It was suggested that Mr.Olsen's radio talks and other articles dealing with gardening and the proposed community effort should be publicized as much as possible. Mrs. J. B. Gibson moved and Mrs. C. J. Norrington seconded a motion that the newspapers be approached with a view to having this done.

Mrs. R. L. McIntosh moved and that the president and Mr. Olsen should arrange for another meetng when they considered sufficient interest had been aroused to assure a larger turnout.

Mr. Cheeseman mentioned the subject of gardening as it might apply to school children. Some effort to encourage children's gardens is anticipated. Mr. Olsen mentioned the co-operative system of Norway which took into consid-
