New Judge Is Thanked

Appreciation of Patience and Consideration Expressed by Local Barrister

At the conclusion of the session of the Supreme Court Assizes here yesterday, T. W. Brown, on behalf of the local members of the bar, thanked Chief Justice Wendell Farris for his patience and consideration to all concerned with the business of the court. Mr. Brown referred to the occasion of the new chief justice's first visit to Prince Rupert. He had made a very favorable impression.

Divorces Granted At Supreme Court
