Attack on Attu Island . . .

DAILY EDITION

The attack of the Japanese bombers on Attu Island, "sual knockout. THE VICTORY LOAN QUESTION

Wee Jackie Paterson stepped into a British ring for the first time since he won the world flyweight crown last June and ran smack ito his toughest fight in years. A southpaw with knockout punch in either hand, every second of the way to take an eight-round decision over a tough naval gurner from Liverpool who exchanged punches 5 under the dual handicap of

The sailor bloke, Gus Foran, was making his London debut and few of the spectators who packed the Queensbury Club thought he would stay the distance let alone extend the king. At the finish of the non-title match, cheers for Foran rocked the house while Paterson slipped from the ring unnoticed. Some even booed the verdict but there was little doubt Paterson piled up a points margin although he could not solve Foran's defence and administer his England bantamweight cham-

The Liverpudlian ran into most of his troubles in the second round. A sizzling right from the champion opened up an old cut over his eyebrow, and few seconds later Foran bruised his right hand on Paterson's head. From that time, he didn't throw a hard right. Foran never has been knocked out and boasts a record of 36 kayoes in 43 contests since turning professional three years ago. He recently returned from naval duty around North Africa.

After the bout Gus asked for -and probably will get-a return match with Jackie, who floored Peter Kane in just 61 seconds to take the world title some weeks ago. At that same time Paterson retained his British and Empire crowns, and by defeating Kane won outright possession of the Lonsdale belt which means that 27 years from now he can start drawing a pension. Awarded by the British Boxing Board of Control, belts won outright have a monetary value and at the age of 50 a holder is entitled to a pension of £1 a week. Cpl. Paterson of the R.A.F. is 23 and will start drawing the stipend in 1970.

Captain Armitage is putting on his Dickens sketches Friday evening at the Empress 'Y' Hall to: the Navy. He much prefers to give his performances in these smaller halls as his work is essentially intimate in style He likes a hall where he can get in personal touch with his audience and walk around disr.buting the bronze medals of he society. And surprisingly nough in the larger theatrical entres the performances put in in these little or intimate heatres are the best and the tost popular. I know the boys e going to enjoy tonight's

Well, we're without a Union Jack again. It seems that the we had here was on loan from the Navy and there was some irregularity about the loan—we accepted it in good faith—so back it has gone. At any rate it was nice having it and our thanks to the Navy just the same. In the meantime Old Glory is lord of all he sur-

The Service Wives Club met Thursday afternoon in the ladies lounge at the 'Y'. There were ten members and five children present and two new members were welcomed to the club. The offle, which was donated by Mrs. Strand, was won by Mrs. card. Tea was served by Mrs. Dent and Mrs. Strand. Next week we are to have a special YWCA visitor from Vancouver attending the club and I would like to see as many members as possible in attendance.
