Ontario Regiment Defeats Air Force by 55 to 49 Score.

In their first basketball exhibition of the new season, Air Force Flyers came out on the short end of a 55 to 49 score against the Ontario Regiment at Seal Cove last night.

The game was a typical preschedule affair with plenty wide open playing, very little work and considerable fouling. Air Force were charged with 13 personals and Ontarians with 12.

Zack, a newcomer to the Flyers this year, bids bold to make FITS YOUR DOUBLE-EDGE RAZOR himself heard from in the Inter-Service League this season. He's a tall and husky young man and seems to know what it's all about. Besides playing strong two-way game, he slipped through the opposition for, 19

Kutner and Hunt, the Regiment's only left-overs, and also when he will proceed to Vanthe mainstays of their last season's ball team, ripped through for 26 and 17 points respectively. Kutner was especially strong on free tosses, potting six.

It was a see-saw battle all the way. The first quarter ended with a 16 to 11 count for the Airmen but, in the second stanza the Ontarians, with Kutner in the van, poured 17 points through the hoop to the Air Force's puny six to grab the lead, 28 to 22.
