Marriage of Joan Squire

Former Local Girl Becomes Bride in Vancouver

Shimmering white satin, cut on torso lines and misted in the folds of a full-length veil was the choice of Joan Dorothy Squire, when, at a pretty ceremony taking place Tuesday in the West Point Grey United Church, Vancouver, she became the bride of PO Garnet Hopper, R.C.A.F. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Squire, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hopper were married by Douglas Telfer, after which a reception was held in the White Rose Ballroom.

The bride, who carried red roses and white carnations, was attended by her sister, Miss Norma Squire, wearing a toe-touching model oof turquoise sheer, with shoulder veil caught by a headdress of white gardenias and carried yellow baby mums.

PO, Albert Buckley was the groomsmen, and Sgt. Gordon Dixon ushered the guests with PO, Douglas Arthur. For the wedding trip to Toronto, the bride donned a tailored frock of aquamarine blue.

with an autumn brown fur-lined llama topcoat and matching accessories. PO, and Mrs. Hopper will reside in Vancouver. The bride was born and raised in Prince Rupert and lived here until three years ago when the family moved to Vancouver.

EVERY business started as an idea in the mind of some individual. Every shop—every farm—every factory—every worthwhile enterprise from banks to movie theatres, came into being because some individual had faith in an idea and the courage to back it.

What is PRIVATE ENTERPRISE? It is the natural desire to make your own way, as far as your ability will take you; an instinct that has brought to this continent the highest standard of life enjoyed by any people on earth. It is the spirit of democracy on the march.
