Has Pride and Faith in Canada

...experience," said R. C. ...man, president of the Canadian National Railways, on returning from a western tour. ...been most encouraging. I ...to Montreal with renewed ...and faith in Canada. ...as the Canadian National Railways was concerned, ...president said that its value ...the national economy and ...the Allied cause was being ...strated beyond doubt. ...the people have every reason ...for taking pride in the ...national system. We are faithful ...and efficiently carrying ...our stewardship. We have ...problems but we are carrying ...tremendous quantities of ...materials, tremendous numbers ...men, and we have had no ...question or delays of a serious ...nature. We are improving our ...service as much as possible. Our ...thousands of workers, every man ...a woman enlisted in the war ...at the home front, are serious ...about and doing their utmost. ...The affairs of the Canadian National are in good shape. ...The same was true, Mr. Vaughan ...said, of the TransCanada ...lines, of which he is a director. ...The T.C.A. is playing a ...part today and is preparing ...itself for great responsibility ...the post war world.
