a little boy on February 26 weighing 6 pounds.

Mrs. Hill-Tout was our hospital visitor this month and, as she has done such a grand job of it, I'm thinking of making her our permanent news scout. It had never occurred to Mrs. Muirhead or me to keep weight records. We were sorry to hear that Mrs. (Seargeant) Isadore was in the hospital and hope she will have a speedy recovery. Mrs. Isadore is the little lady who played at the big army concert one of the regiments gave in the Aid to Russia Fund at the Capitol recently and mother of the small girl who recited on the same program.
