Candy and Mike Stewart, that pair of romantics whose marital woes have delighted Ladies Home tol Theatre screen on Wednesday night. in "Meet the Stewarts." William Holden and Frances Dee are the carefree co-stars of the film.

"Meet the Stewarts" describes he domestic difficulties of a young Pattison. couple who hadn't a nickel in their pockets and a million dollars worth of love in their hearts. They try to ve on a budget but, when the bride can't even boil an egg, she's ound to keep her husband in hot water. Complicate their married strife with her family, which thinks Mike is a fortune hunter, and his family, which thinks Candy is a man-hunter, and "Meet the Stewarts" reaches a crescendo of hilarity particularly appealing to film

In major supporting roles are such well known comedy actors as Grant Mitchell and Marjorie Gateson, who appear as Candy's wealthy parents; Ann Gillis and Danny Mummert, as her kid sister and brother; Anne Revere, as Mike's elder sister, who has her doubts about Candy's capabilities, and Roger Clark, who is seen as the innocent cause for a free-forall which finally resolves all difficulties.
