CENTENNIAL OF CHURCH

Capacity Congregations at St. Paul's Lutheran Yesterday.

The centennial services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church was climaxed last evening when a capacity audience turned out for the third full service of the day to witness the presentation of a unique program in story and song of the history of the church during one hundred years on this continent. It was built around the story of a young couple coming from Norway in 1843 and becoming members of the first Lutheran Church in Muskego, Wisconsin. As the story moved along, appropriate musical numbers were rendered as an application to the story. The two narrators were Bishop H. L. Foss and the pastor of the congregation, Rev. Magnus B. Anderson.

The program was as follows: "Behold A Host," Harald C. Normann, Robert L. Nedrud, violin obligato.

"My Faith Looks Up To Thee," Junior Choir, Mrs. Magnus B. Anderson, director.

"God's Word Is Our Great Heritage," Senior Choir in unison, Harald C. Normann, director.

"Aften Solen Smiler," Mrs. Anton Dybhavn.

"And Now We Must Bid One Another Farewell," Henry Kane, Robert L. Nedrud.

"O Bless This House," Harald C. Normann.

"Blessed Jesus At Thy Word," Senior Choir in unison.

"Hallelujah To' The Lord," Senior Choir.

"Built On The Rock," Senior Choir, Henry Kane, baritone solo.

"God Bless Our Native Land," Junior Choir.

Congregation singing Epilogue.

Earlier In Day

The services of the day were appropriately begun with Holy Communion at 10 o'clock when the Bishop gave the confessional address. At 11 a.m. the morning worship service was held at which time Bishop Foss divided his message into three points:

"Heritage—From the Word of God and handed down to us and we are not satisfied with anything but the pure teaching of the Word—unadulterated!"

"The Need—Do we see the need of human souls; do we

First Aid to Relaxation

Time out for a smoke. Canada's fighting sons in uniform carry on through arctic cold, desert heat or drenching rain. And, under all conditions, they treasure their Sweet Caps for blessed moments of relaxation. Because Sweet Caps have proved such unfailingly good companions, they are the most popular cigarettes with Canadians over here, over there, everywhere!

SWEET CAPORAL CIGARETTES

"The purest form in which tobacco can be smoked"

Sweet Caps for Remembrance

When the Canadians left "this green village" in southern England for Sicily, writes the London Daily Express, "Auntie Flo, landlady of the local pub, put half-a-dozen empty Sweet Caporal Cigarette cartons on the glass shelf" as mementos.

see that without Christ the world is lost? The church would transform the world if we saw the need.

"Courage — Do we have the courage to venture forth with Jesus Christ?"

At 12:30 the Sunday School also had a special centennial service at which time the Bishop spoke to the children and the Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Magnus Anderson sang two numbers.

In the afternoon service in the Norwegian language was held.

MRS. MARIETTE BURROWS found out the cause. A sick liver gave her dizzy spells, sleepless nights — made her always tired and constipated. Fruit-a-lives quickly made her strong and healthy again. Just try them. Fruit-a-lives are Canada's Largest Selling Liver Tablets.

MRS. GEORGE LITTLE DIES

Esteemed Pioneer Woman of Terrace Succumbs to Heart Attack.

Numerous friends in Prince Rupert and throughout the central interior will learn with deep regret of the sudden death at 9 o'clock last night at her home in Terrace of Mrs. Clara Little, wife of George Little, well known pioneer timber operator and founder of the town of Terrace. Death was due to a heart ailment.

Mrs. Little came to Terrace as a bride in 1912. She was born in Spokane 56 years ago.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Little leaves two sons—Dudley, partner in the Little, Haugland and Kerr sawmill, and Gordon, in charge of a sawmill at Kwin-itza—and three daughters—Dorothy and Clara, twins, at present in Vancouver, and Edith, who is in training at Vancouver.

The funeral will take place at Terrace Tuesday afternoon.
