

ACTIVITIES OF Y.M.C.A. AND Y.W.C.A.

By DOROTHY GARBUTT
The Hostess

It was a grand party. I mean the dinner and dance the sergeants of one of our western units gave last Saturday night. They went to so much trouble and put so much care and thought into the arrangements that I'd like to thank them right here and now for everything. I discovered an old classmate in Maj. or Hinch and we spent most of the evening talking about old friends (all right, Reg, I shan't say how long ago, it's my secret as well as yours). Sergeant Major Murphy challenged me to an after dinner darts match and I later learned that betting on the odds was the order of the day. For results 'phone Sergeant Major Murphy!

Those of you who remember Bob Terry of the Scotties will be interested to hear that on Saturday of this week he is to be married to Margaret Garrison of Vancouver at the Vancouver Heights United Church. Remember, it was Bob and his pal, Pte. Woods (Woody), who decorated the Presbyterian Church while they were here. They made many friends while in Prince Rupert.

Two bay boys to report in this week's "Hatched - Matched - and-Dispatched" department—to Mr.

and Mrs. A. B. Aylesworth on April 6, a son named David Leslie. He was an eight-pounder.

And to Mr. and Mrs. Macmurchie on April 8, a husky eight-pound nine-ounce booby named Joseph Robert! How do you like that for a good fighting Irish name — young Joe Macmurchie?

This is the story of two tired sailor boys. They were all in from a strenuous game of ping pong and I made the tactical error of asking them to bring me a magazine and parcel which I had forgotten and left below in the lower hall. As I said before they were very tired, oh terribly, dreadfully tired! I really should have known better. I hope next time they need a ping pong ball I shan't be feeling too utterly exhausted to unlock the cupboard door to get them one. I hope.

Minor repairs to the city lock-up and isolation hospital have been authorized by the city council on recommendation of the health committee.

Mrs. Dorothy M. Wallace has been appointed to fill the position on the City Hall staff of Miss Norreen Gibson who has enlisted for war service.

A twenty-ton set of platform scales for the public weigh station is to be purchased from Canadian Fairbanks-Morse Ltd. by the city. This was decided upon by the city council last night on recommendation of the board of works.

Mayor W. M. Watts will be the speaker at tomorrow's regular weekly luncheon of the Prince Rupert Gyro Club. He will give a review of the civic situation.

The city engineer has been instructed to put up notices at the valve at the fishermen's floats and other public places warning that water service will be cut off if privileges in connection therewith are abused. Ald. Robert McKay, chairman of the board of works, suggested at last night's council meeting that automatic closing faucets be installed.

This is the symbol of the new Victory Loan. It was chosen because this year FOUR has very special meanings.

It is the Fourth year of the war.

We fight for Four Freedoms.

This is Canada's Fourth Victory Loan!

The symbol IV is made up of two characters, the Morse code "V" and the letter "V"—the "V" that signals "Victory" to free men all the world over. Wearing this emblem will mean that you have bought the new Victory Bonds, sent your dollars into the fight. It will mean that you, too, can say proudly, "I stand for Victory!"

WEAR THIS EMBLEM where others can see it!

When you buy bonds, you will be given this emblem to wear. Make a special point of wearing it all the time, as long as the Victory Loan drive lasts. This way you can help sell more Victory Bonds.

The "Sign of Four" is something to be proud of—a sign that you have done your bit—a silent reminder to others to do theirs!
