MARY SKOG, IVOR WAHL ARE UNITED

Members of two well known district families were principals of an attractive wedding in St. Paul's Lutheran Church Saturday evening when Miss Mary Skog, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olof Skog, Hays Cove Circle, became the bride of Ivor Wahl, second son of Edward Wahl and the late Mrs. Hilder Wahl of Digby Island. Rev. M. Aalen performed the ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father to the strains of the Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Peter Lien, the bride looked lovely in an ivory satin gown of long, torso design. She wore a long veil gathered in a halo coronet, and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Evelyn Skog, sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Giske. Miss Skog wore a gown of blue taffeta with lace insertions, with a spray of pink carnations gathered at the crown of her head with a pink ribbon. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Giske wore a gown of pink taffeta with lace insertion and she also wore a spray of blue and yellow carnations gathered with blue taffeta ribbon in her hair.

Groomsman was Ernest Wahl, brother of the bridegroom. John Wick and Pete Petersen were ushers.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Ole Skog sang "Because."

A reception followed the ceremony in the Oddfellows Hall, tastefully decorated. About 75 friends and relatives gathered to extend their good wishes to the newly married couple. The guests were received by the bride's mother, wearing a dress of pale blue with fuchsia accessories.

The bride's table was attractively set with lace cloth. Toastmaster was Peter Lien. Toast to the bride was proposed by George Hill, and the bridegroom responded. Toast to the bridesmaids was proposed by John Husich, while Peter Lien proposed a toast to the matron of honor. Rev. Mr. Aalen made a few suitable remarks. The bride's attendants each were presented with lovely pendants by the bride.

Telegrams of congratulation, received from the bride's grandparents and other relatives in Norway, were read by Peter Lien. The guests sat down to a tasty cold-plate supper served by Mrs. Alfred Hendrickson, Mrs. Kurt Carlson and Mrs. Henry Jackson. The tables were later cleared and dancing was begun to music by Chriss Fossum, Raye Fossum and Fritz Boglo.

Mr. and Mrs. Wahl sailed on the Princess Adelaide Monday night on a honeymoon trip to Vancouver and other southern points, after which they plan to take up residence on Digby Island.

The bride was formerly employed by Kaien Consumers' Co-operative, and the bridegroom is employed at his father's boat yard on Digby Island.

SALE OF HALLOWE'EN SHELLOUT TICKETS BEGUN BY CHILDREN

Sale of penny Kinsmen Halloween shellout tickets by city children has begun. Proceeds of the sale will be used by the local service club for welfare work, such as providing a boys' summer camp at Lakelse Lake.

Prime objective of the Halloween shellout is to engage the interests of the children and entertain them on the night when goblin and witches are supposed to roam abroad.

COMPETE FOR PRIZES
Tickets sold between now and the end of the month will be collected by the youngsters Halloween when they make their house-to-house canvass.

At each of three bonfires, prizes will be awarded to children who have sold and collected most shellout tickets. There will be three first prizes of $15 in cash, three second prizes of $10, three third prizes of Meccano sets, and three fourth prizes of fountain pens.

LOCATION OF FIRES
Robert Moore, chairman of the Kinsmen's shellout committee, announced today that locations of the bonfires would be: 1. Near Conrad Street; 2. Near Park Avenue; 3. Near Totem Park.

At each park children will be given weiners, buns and apples. Entertainment will be provided and a clown will be on hand.

SKIN SWALLOWER
After moulting, the common toad swallows its skin.
