teacher hesitates to visit the parent until a major crisis develops and too often the parent hesitates to visit the teacher because "Junior might feel embarrassed." Education Week with its invitation to visit the schools is an opportunity to discard these restrictive inhibitions. It should prove an inspiration that will lead each parent and each teacher to seek the ultimate in good-will and co-operation.

Seasonable Ideas for Housekeepers

ECONOMY IN MEAT COURSE IS HOUSEWIFE'S PROBLEM TODAY

BIG PROBLEM—For a certain number of homemakers the meat course presents a big problem and even a headache. They fume against meat rationing, against the price of meat, etc., but when asked whether they have tried the cheaper cuts, which are also coupon savers, the answer is, generally, no, and their question is, "Are they any good?"

They are good if properly cooked, say home economists. The cheaper and consequently less tender cuts of meat require long and slow cooking in moist heat. In this category are classified the following cuts: blade, brisket, chuck, flank, heart, neck, plate, round, rump, shank, short ribs and shoulder.

Proper seasoning plays an important part in making these cuts of meat better flavor. If used with discretion, fresh or dried herbs, spices and sauces add distinction to meat dishes. Parsley, bay leaf, thyme, savory, garlic, marjoram, celery leaves, pepper corns, chives, chili powder, curry powder are some of the seasonings used. Nothing is quite as good as mint with lamb; mace or paprika blend well with veal; sage with pork; cloves, horseradish or mustard with beef. The following meat dishes using less tender cuts of meat are suggested.

Meat Loaf
1 pound ground raw beef (chuck, hamburger, neck)
1 pound pork liver
1 medium onion
1 cup dry bread crumbs
1½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 egg
Scald liver for 5 minutes, then drain and grind with onion and beef (unless hamburger). Add other ingredients and mix well. Pack in a greased loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 1½ hours. Serves six to eight.

Beefsteak and Kidney Pie
(Chuck, flank, neck, plate, rump, round, shank, stewing beef)
1 to 1½ pounds beef
½ to 1 pound beef kidney (2 lbs. meat)
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tablespoons fat
½ cup flour
3 cups hot water

Sweet-Sour Beef
4 pounds beef, chuck, shoulder, rump or round
-2 cups vinegar
2 cups water
1 teaspoon whole black peppers
3 bay leaves
3 tablespoons fat
1 tablespoon salt

Remove excess fat from meat and reserve. Soak meat 8 hours or overnight in vinegar and water to which peppers and bay leaves have been added. Turn meat once during soaking. Drain very well, saving liquid. Heat fat from meat in heavy kettle, add meat and brown on all sides. Add salt and 1½ cups of the reserved liquid. Cover and cook slowly 2 to 2½ hours or until tender, adding more liquid during cooking if necessary. Remove meat and serve with gravy and potato dumplings. Eight to 10 servings.

PRESS APPEAL FOR AGED MEN'S CLOTHING NEED

An appeal launched by Mrs. Ross Richardson of the Women of the Moose for clothing donations for the city's pioneers has resulted in the contribution of a suit of clothes, several pairs of socks and two pairs of work boots, according to Mrs. Richardson.

The need for clothing by the elderly men, some of whom are so badly off that they do not feel sufficiently presentable to go down town, was emphasized again by Mrs. Richardson.

"We need clothing, both dress and work quality, and would be grateful for any further donations from the citizens of Prince Rupert," she said.
