Miss Fisher says much of her city. success is due to her keenwitted little mother, 86-year-old Vith, a town of 7,000 which was Mrs. Jessie Fisher who is justly proud of her daughter.

The blind teacher's pupils occupied by about 700 townscome from all over the province people. and from all classes of society. There is a blind nun in a game. city convent who can now take! part in reading prayers through the Braille system.

One of her cleverest pupils is an 86-year-old man who "picked up Moon type reading in a surprisingly short time." She explained that it takes about six months for the average sightless person to master Braille, the six-dot system. The Moon system, based on the English alphabet, she believes is easier for elderly English-speaking per sons to master.

Miss Fisher's days are filled with activity. Every morning she goes to the C.N.I.B. shop here to teach a variety of skills and crafts. Sometimes pupils come to her home, but frequently, guided by a woman companion, she goes to them whether they be at home or in | hospital.

More than 15 blind pupils call her teacher.
