I.O.D.E. WAR MEMORIAL

Mrs. D. C. Stuart Tells of Drive to Be Inaugurated in Prince Rupert Next Week

Imperial Order, Daughters of the Empire, in Prince Rupert will participate actively in the national Second War Memorial Fund which is about to be launched throughout Canada. The national objective is $500,000,000 of which it is estimated, Prince Rupert will be expected to raise about $2500. Mrs. D. C. Stuart has been appointed chairman for the drive in Prince Rupert and she is already getting her organization under way. Inaugural event will be a Founders' Day tea on Wednesday of next week in I.O.D.E. Hall.

The Second War Memorial Fund, Mrs. Stuart explained to the Daily News yesterday afternoon, will have as its practical purpose the assistance of sons and daughters of men who fought in the Second World War and were either killed or incapacitated. Bursaries and scholarships will be provided from the fund for deserving students.

Mrs. Stuart referred to the magnificent work the I.O.D.E. had done in the war for the forces both overseas and at home, for the bombed out people in Britain and for the Polish people. The people of Prince Rupert, she said, had always generously supported the projects of the I.O.D.E. which was now hoping for a similar measure of support in what was considered a highly worthy and appropriate work in postwar remembrance.

MOOSE INITIATE EIGHT MEMBERS

Initiation of eight new members by Governor D. G. Wood took up the greater portion of the business meeting of the Prince Rupert Lodge, Loyal Order of Moose, in the I.O.D.E. Hall last night. A social period followed the meeting at which refreshments were enjoyed and cards were played. A goose, donated by B. J. Bacon, was drawn for and won by Sam Haudenschild.

George H. Martin of Northwest Construction Ltd. arrived in the city on the Prince Rupert today from Ocean Falls where he is superintending a contract the company is carrying out for construction of a dormitory and theatre for Pacific Mills, and will be here until tomorrow night on business.

NOTICE

Having disposed of the majority of goods from the American officer's club and having to vacate the premises for War Assets Corporation, I have now opened for regular business in the Clapp Block, corner of McBride and Second Ave. where I will be able to handle your goods for sale. Nothing too large and nothing too small—Send them along and I will sell them—George Dawes, The Auctioneer. Phone Red 127. (31)

SONJA LADIES' ANNIVERSARY

Celebrating the fifteenth anniversary of the founding of Sonja Chapter—the women's branch of the Sons of Norway Lodge—a program and banquet was held in Valhalla Hall Saturday night at which the officers of the Sons of Norway were guests.

The hall was decorated with daffodils and yellow tapers for the occasion.

A summary of the work done by the organization was given by the president, Mrs. John Storseth, who said that during the war the group had donated $200 to the Norway relief fund and, in addition, the ladies are maintaining a growing building fund which now stands at $1,200.

Mrs. Gunnar Selvig spoke on the value of unity and, using the valiant Norwegian home front effort during the war as an example, said that only co-operation could make for success.

Charter members of Sonja who were present at the celebration were Mrs. John Storseth, Mrs. Barney Road, Mrs. Knut Slatta, Mrs. Erling Wick, Mrs. Jack Strand, and Mrs. T. Eldsvick.

During the banquet, Mrs. Jack Strand cut the birthday cake which was served to those present.

The musical part of the program consisted of violin solos by W. Simonsen and S. Torkelson. Master of ceremonies was Barney Road. Following the banquet, a dance was held.
