NEW MEMBERS IN TERRACE LEGION

TERRACE—Canadian Legion's monthly meeting on Thursday brought together a very good turn-out of members. Five new members were initiated to membership.

Some structural alterations to the interior of the club premises were ordered so as to ensure a more strict adherence to the rules of the club in admitting non-members. A donation of $100 was made to the fund for the purchase from War Assets of the drill hall in the military brigade camp. The meeting nominated officers for next year. Several names were put up for the meeting in December when the election of officers takes place.

PARTY FOR NEWLYWEDS

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerr Honored by Terrace Community

A well attended and much enjoyed party was held in the Odd-fellows' Hall Friday evening in honor of the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kerr. The party was a community affair with nearly 200 people in attendance. For the occasion the front of the platform had been suitably decorated. "Curly" Baker was master of ceremonies. The proceedings commenced with games, in which young and old participated. This was followed by dancing, music being supplied by local talent. At midnight delicious refreshments were served. A beautifully decorated cake having on it "Terrace Extends to You Both Best Wishes" was cut and passed around by the bride and groom. Following supper, presentation of gifts was made to Mr. and Mrs. Kerr by Floyd Frank. They consisted of a pine rug, chenille bedspread and an electric tri-light. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr expressed their appreciation in appropriate speeches. A number of films were then shown. The evening concluded with dancing and the singing of "For They Are Jolly Good Fellows."

Home Recipe Party Was Success

ALMOND TEA CAKE
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup shortening
3/4 cup granulated sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
3 eggs
3 tablespoons milk
1/2 teaspoon almond extract
2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
3/4 teaspoon salt

Topping
4 tablespoons soft (not melted) butter
4 tablespoons honey
2-3 cup chopped blanched almonds
1/4 teaspoon almond extract

Cake—Cream together butter, shortening and sugar. Add syrup, well beaten eggs, milk and flavoring, and stir to blend. Add flour sifted with baking powder and salt, and beat. Pour into a greased wax paper-lined pan (about 16x8x1 1/2 inches) and smooth top with spatula or knife. Spread topping evenly over batter. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Cut in small squares or narrow strips. Serve warm. May be reheated.

Topping—Cream butter and honey thoroughly. Add almonds and flavoring, and stir to blend.

WOMEN ARE INFORMED

News of Rationing Changes and Shortages Relayed in Eight-Page Booklet

OTTAWA, @—No advertising campaign, no sample copies, were necessary to build the Consumers' News into the publication with what is believed the largest circulation in Canada. For the last four years country and city women alike have looked for the latest on rationing and shortages on this eight-page monthly bulletin put out by the Consumer Branch of the Prices Board.

No postage is required for the 319,000 copies which each month are distributed to housewives from Prince Rupert, B.C., to Princeton, Ont., Vancouver to Vignau, Que. First they are sent in batches to the 16,000 Consumer Branch representatives all over Canada, and to each of the 1,700 labor union representatives. From there they go to members of the various community organizations.

Not only does this "passing along" save money, but it also lends the personal touch, said Rose Shaw, former women's editor of the Montreal Gazette, who puts out the bulletin. "As the paper shortage became acute subscribers were urged in turn to pass their copy along to a neighbor, rather than keep it, or throw it away—and those who no longer wanted copies were asked to notify us and have their names removed from our lists."

"It's the only publication which gives the policy of the board," continued Miss Shaw. "We have tried to anticipate what people

BEWITCHING WORDS
LONDON @—People have allowed themselves to be "bewitched by words," Robert R. Hyde, director of the Industrial Welfare Society, said in an address in which he told of a chimney-sweep who called himself a "flucnomist" and charged sixpence more than an ordinary sweep.

will be wanting to know—when any new board ruling comes out its up to us to try and explain it—not in the language of the economist, but in words everyone will understand."

Male Readers Too
Not only women are avid readers of The News. A Toronto lawyer recently wrote in asking that the names of several of his friends be added to the list of subscribers.

Take for instance the November issue in which it discusses the reason for the increase in the price of milk. A brief story reviews the entire milk question.

Another story, humorously illustrated, points out that Canada had an excellent potato crop this year, and urges Canadians to eat more potatoes.

Many a Canadian newspaper has used the bulletin's copy on its editorial page, concluded Miss Shaw. "Many a housewife has written thank-you notes to us for the information it contains."

"Turkey for Christmas" tops another story in which the consumer is told of the recent board price ruling which will allow more families to enjoy turkey dinners for Christmas this year.
