Port Edward's scoring strength was pretty well wrapped up in the person of A. Gurney, who lobbed in 32 of the visitors' 43 points. In a manner reminiscent of Jack Lindsay in one of his 'hot" moments, Gurney made every move count toward a score. His virtuosity accounted for 16 of his team's 32 points at half time but, even at that early In the three other games of date, failed to match the more widely distributed accuracy of Macey's who had tallied up 27 Joe Haugan led the Macey's scoring with 14 points, followed by Maurice Teng with 10. R. McNeil scored 9 points for Port Edward. 99 Wins Again
