in real earnest at the Capitol. Attestation forms with all the necessary data are being handed out nightly at the theatre and will be returnable commencing next Monday night when the first parade on the newly recommissioned H.M.C.S. Chatham reserve division is held. Alread there has been some interest displayed in the taking out of attestation forms.

Last night, Lieut. Eric Jones, permanent force staff officer of H.M.C.S. Chatham, spoke from the stage of the theatre in instituting the recruiting camment in the reserve division or the permanent naval force. While a primary consideration was to make in the reserve division a reservoir of trained men who would be ready in case of emergency, there were many other advantages to be derived November 28th. the access to for instruction of modern naval equipment, the acquisition of good and useful knowledge, and the opportunity for healthful training.

Lieut. Jones will be speaking nightly at the Capitol this week December 6, Civic Centre. and there will be other activities publicizing of the campaign.
