Metlakatla Swamps Intermediates

In Saturday night's opening game New Metlakatla obtained full revenge for their Friday night defeat by climbing over the Intermediate All-Stars by a score 60-39. They also captured the total points for the series by a margin of 19.

Metlakatla carried the play throughout the game, leading at half time by a score 29-17. Met lakatla dominated the second half with equal facility.

Chief marksman for the visitors was Bolton, who racked up 21 points. Joe Davis, Intermediate's bouncing scoring centre, was pretty well held down by the covering tactics of the visitors.

Metlakatla Bows To Seniors

Seniors made their third straight win Sunday afternoon when they overcame the Metlakatla aggregation 46-32 before an audience which packed th gym. Metlakatla, for some reason, was not playing the same brand of ball as they exhibited the night before.

Angus MacPhee, in excellent form, was top marksman for the home team, garnering 18 points He was followed by Brendible of Metlakatla, who marked up 12.

Herbie Morgan, whose marksmanship is a by-word, seemed to be haunted by bad gremlins which made his shots circle the hoop and fall out rather than in. The scores:
