BOUQUET FOR FIRE DEPT.

Appreciation of the prompt and effective services of the Prince Rupert city and War Assets fire departments at the fire at Port Edward cannery early yesterday morning was voiced to the Daily News yesterday afternoon by Harry Robins. manager of Nelson Bros. Ltd. cannery. "They did a fine job and lost no time about it," Mr Robins readily acknowledged.

Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Anderson returned this morning on cities during the last few weeks.

It's here! The new wonder cream that acts like an invisible waterproof glove. It's SEALSKIN it banishes dishpan hands - gives complete protection against strong soaps, grease and stains. Keeps your hands soft and beautiful all the time.

SEALSKIN restores the damage already done to your hands. It protects them against further harm. Just rub it on once each day, then go about your work.

SEALSKIN is inexpensive. It's now available at leading beauty parlors, drug, grocery and depart ment stores everywhere.
