HARD ON WORMS

The female platypus or duckbill of Australia eats heavily while suckling young. In one instance, a female weighing only two pounds consumed one and three-quarter pounds of worms and shellfish overnight.

NEW AIRCRAFT IS CHRISTENED SKEENA QUEEN

Latest addition to Queen Charlotte Airlines' west coast flying boat service, the Skeena Queen, was christened by a native tribal queen at a colorful ceremony at the mooring wharf at the Seal Cove air base Monday afternoon. The ceremony was attended by more than a score of invited guests who later were taken on a flight over the area in the newly christened shutters clicked, the flying boat received the blessing of Rev. B. S. Prockter, and the congratuoperations manager for Queen guests. Charlotte Airlines.

Mrs. Leask then christened the flying boat, after which she was presented with a large Miss Margaret Anfield, small daughter of Indian Agent and Mrs. F. E. Anfield.

The party then clambered into the yellow-and-black flying boat, weekly airmail service from New and were taken on a half-hour tour over the harbor, Metlakatla, Port Edward and the Skeena expiration of one month from the canneries. Those making flight were Mayor and Mr. H. M. Daggett, F. E. Anfield, Mr. and Mrs. Leask, Mrs. G. H. Stan-COVENTRY, Eng., (P) - The bridge, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. day of July, 1946, A.D. School Boy Police CASTOR, Alta., (P-A junior police force has solved the traffic problems of this southern Alberta town. Established by Chief Constable A. S. Russell, the force consists of a captain, two lieutenants and seven constables, all school students. The most important task of the junior force is to patrol corners when children are going to and from school. It was organized by Russell following a fatal accident at a busy street corner. Five minutes before school is dismissed the young officers, clad in neat uniforms, hats and gloves, take up their posts of The Skeena Queen, which re- duty in the town.
