During the dinner Acting Mayor Robert McKay, in a brief speech welcomed the guests on behalf of the management He commended the confidence of the management in Prince Rupert as displayed in their enterprize in such an ambitious undertaking.

W. F. Stone, president of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, added his congratulations. This was a restaurant of which the city might well be proud. One of the valuable functions he could see would be its | catering to tourists.

During the dinner there was piano music by Andy McNaugh-

The guests displayed keen interest in inspecting the premises which take in all the latest and most attractive in culinary settings from the spick and sran well-appointed kitchen to the modernistically designed eating hall with its attractive decorations and up-to-date furnishings.
