1000 10000000, 100...

Thousands of Canadian boys—sons, brothers, husbands are returning from the wars-returning to what promises to be a happy tomorrow . . . a tomorrow that many gave their lives to bring about.

A tomorrow that may be held back if immoderate or unessential spending brings about inflation...if our desires are not confined to temperate limits...if the many strange ideas and philosophies that are with us today are not carefully considered and moderated to suit our needs and way of living.

The real enjoyments and full pleasures of gracious living are possible only to the man who practices moderation—in everything he does.

The House of Seagram suggests that we think of tomorrow and be moderate in all we do.
